AKHNOOR: NSS Unit of Government Degree college (GDC) Akhnoor organised cleanliness drive in the college campus as a part of weeklong activities to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti under the ages of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav under the guidance of Dr.Namarta, Principal of the college. The event was organized by Dr. Sanjay Kapoor (Assistant Professor in chemistry) NSS programme officer of the College. The cleanliness drive in the college campus was inspired by initiatives of Prime Minister Narendra Modi who had given a call against single - use plastic. The aim of organising the event was to make students aware of the Gandhian thoughts about cleanliness. Mahatma Gandhi said , cleanliness is most important for physical well-being and a healthy environment.

About 50 NSS volunteers of the college participated in the drive by conducting cleanliness activities in the premises of the college. In his address to volunteers , Dr Sanjay Kapoor (NSS PO) said that NSS Unit is always committed to fulfill Bapu's dream of clean and hygienic India and keeps coming forward to create awareness among community about the important of cleanliness.
