AKHNOOR: All India Jat Maha Sabha (AIJMS), J&K President and former Mayor Ch Manmohan Singh on Monday reiterated demands of granting OBC status and ownership rights on Agricultural land to the Jat community as well as displaced families.

Chairing a meeting of AIJMS here at Village Derian Jaat De Kothe in Khour, Ch Manmohan said that grant of OBC status is the only way to provide justice to Jats as educated youth of the community has to move from posts to pillars for getting career opportunities and once the aforesaid right will be granted the community will make progress by leaps and bounds.

Various burning issues were raised by the people of the area in the meeting which was attended by a large number of members of the Jat community.

Addressing the meeting, Ch Manmohan Singh said that the ultimate panacea for uplifting the community from dearth and poverty is grant of OBC status as this can only provide the right opportunity to the youths to grow and prosper.

"No doubt the border people lack facilities as far as providing education to their children is concerned and they have to travel miles to attain studies", he said, adding that once they will get the OBC status their lives will become easy and meaningful.

Others who were present included Omkar Choudhary, Choudhary Prem Pal, Choudhary Rattan, Choudhary Dev Raj, Choudhary Rashpal, Choudhary Surinder Chouhan, Sandesh Choudhary, Pardeep Choudhary, Ankush Choudhary, Kuldeep Kour, Anita Choudhary, Choudhary Yash Pal and Choudhary Narain.
