Class XII students of JK Public School Kunjwani appearing in Mock test.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: In preparation of Term-I Board examination for classes X and XII, which are scheduled to be held from mid November, JK Public School Kunjwani started its mock test for both these classes from Monday. While Class XII will be appearing in offline mode, Class X will be appearing online. Board has kept both the options open, online as well as offline depending upon the situation.

The test for both the classes will be in MCQ form of 90 minutes duration, to be filled in OMR sheets.

To give the children a thorough practice for the coming exam, JKPS Kunjwani conducted Term-I Mock Test in the same format as prescribed by the CBSE. The pattern of questions has also been kept in conformity with the board pattern

The students were confident that this Mock test is going to boost their morale and help them in the forthcoming board examination.

There was an overwhelming response from the parents for the conduct of these exams.
