

J&K heading towards new era of development & prosperity: Union MoS I&C

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
RAJOURI: As part of the Central Government's Public Outreach Programme, Union Minister of State for Industries and Commerce, Anupriya Singh Patel on Tuesday concluded her two-day visit to district Rajouri.

On the second day of her tour, the Union MoS visited Panchayat Saranoo of Block Dhangrai and interacted with the women PRI and general public. The PRIs and the locals raised several issues and demands about different sectors.

In her address, the MoS said that J&K is heading towards a new era of development and prosperity and witnessing a wave of positive change with the Government taking several reformative measures for socio-economic development, besides empowering the people of the UT.

Union Minister of State for Industries and Commerce, Anupriya Singh Patel speaking during a public meeting.

The Minister said that the Union Government is committed to ensuring transparency and accountability in its functioning which are necessary for democratic and participative governance, as they help build trust and improve the impact of schemes.

Describing the objective of her visit, she informed that the special public outreach by the Central Government to JK UT has been launched to take first-hand account of the public grievances at their doorsteps and ensure better implementation of the Government schemes on the ground.

"All efforts are being made to bring JK into mainstream development and several schemes have been launched in this regard", she said.

Terning the 3-tier system a boon for democracy, Patel said that the system is playing a crucial role in strengthening democracy at the grassroots level as the people themselves are now formulating the plans as per the needs of their areas.

While stressing on export promotion, the MoS said that it will play a considerable role in employment generation and asked the concerned to make a suitable district export plan to make the district an export hub of indigenous products.

She said as Rajouri has immense potential in dairy and other sectors, we are working on a multi-pronged strategy on value addition and proper market linkage of the indigenous products to raise the per capita income of the district. She also advised the District Administration to involve youth in these sectors as they have immense potential which will help achieve the desired outcomes.

During her visit to the Gyan Public School, the Minister participated in the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebration where she paid rich tributes to all those who had made supreme sacrifice in the lines of duty.

She also honoured the Nok and veer naris of the brave hearts who had sacrificed their lives in protecting the integrity and sovereignty of the country.

District Development Commissioner Rajouri, Rajesh Shavan, Director Industries and Commerce, Anoo Malhotra; DDC Member, Rajeshwar Singh; ADDC, Pawan Parihar; ACR, Tahir Mustafa Malik; ACD, Sushil Khajuria, CEO, Gulzar Hussain; BDC chairperson; Kuldeep Raj Gupta, Ex MoS VC PAB, Dinesh Gupta, Ranchher Thakur and other senior Civil and Police Officers were also present.

Udhampur people suffering shortage of potable water: Cong leader

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
UDHAMPUR: Despite change in weather Udhampur people are facing acute shortage of potable water in the city areas. This was alleged by Senior Congress leader Sumeet Magotra while addressing the press conference on Tuesday. He further alleged that Jal Shakti department failed to ensure regular water supply as concerned JE confined to restore and layout water supply lines to his house near Bus stand locality.

Lambasting Jal Shakti Department, Magotra said that scarcity of drinking water has raised several questions as Ministers of Union Government those are on tour of J&K UT to access the problems of common man. He said that about seventy Union Ministers have toured the J&K UT to access the grievances of people but it is unfortunate their trip is just an eye wash and they are not interested to listen grievances of rural and remote areas people.

Magotra further expressed that from last several months the people of Udhampur District are facing the scarcity of drinking water due to irregular supply by Jal Shakti Department.

Magotra urged the higher ups of the department and local administration to do took serious note of newly posted JE who bent upon favouring his own family at the stake of public. Rajesh Khajuria, Amit Tadyal, Sam Sharma were also present.
