Ch Manmohan urges Jat community to get united for rights BGSBU organises webinar on 'Inclusive Society

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

UDHAMPUR: President All Jat MahaSabha (AIJMS) and former Mayor Choudhary Manmohan Singh gave a clarion call to the community members to get united for fighting for the cause and rights of Jats especially to seek the OBC status.

The Jat leader was addressing a meeting of the community members here at Tehsil Chenani.

At the outset, the local community members lauded the President All India Jat Maha Sabha for his proactive role in highlighting the issues of the community at various forums and the significant role which he is playing to get the rights of the Jats without any compromise whatsoever. They said that in the last hundreds of years no one has come to Chenani to listen to the plight of the community members but Ch Manmohan has took the initiative and is in the town to listen to the President AIJMS Ch Manmohan Singh posing with others.

Ch Manmohan asked them to get united under the umbrella of All India Jat Maha Sabha as presently the community is divided by their association with different political outfits. He said that the need of the hour is to leave aside the political affiliations and come under one platform to fight for the cause of the community with one voice. He said that first and foremost demand of the community should be the grant of OBC status because this can sort out many problems of the community especially the unemployment which is the main cause of worry for Jats. He urged the members to give wholehearted support to Jat Mahasabha to mount pressure on the government to mitigate the problems of the community.

Later, a committee was formed in which Babu Ram Choudhary (Ex serviceman) was elected as President Vinod Choudhary (Tonu) Vice

He asked the newly elected committee members to keep this thing in mind that unity of the community is the topmost priority and if they face any problem, the AIJMS is standing shoulder to shoulder with

The newly elected committee members assured to extend full support in strengthening the organization and also to work for getting OBC status as soon as possible.

Among those who accompanied Ch Manmohan Singh include Ch Prem Pal, Ch Rattan Lal, Lect Girdhari Lal, Lecturer Surat Singh, Karnail Singh and Satish Choudhary.

through Gender Sensitisation' Perwez applauded the efforts

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: Women Cell of Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University (BGSBU) Rajouri in collaboration with the Media Cell organised one day webinar on Inclusive Society through Gender Sensitisation.

Prof. Akbar Masood, Vice Chancellor of the University in his message said that BGSBU is committed to gender sensitization which is reflected in the programmes it has undertaken in the recent past.

Prof. Akbar mentioned that Gender sensitization is the basic requirement to understand the sensitive needs of a particular gender.Prof. Akbar mentioned that education enables the development of a more democratic society which can be crucial to changing attitudes into accepting gender equality as a fundamental social value. Dean Academic Affairs, Prof. Iqbal Parwez delivered the welcome address. Prof Iqbal of Women Cell and the Media Cell for organising a webinar on such an important topic. Prof. Iqbal said that a gender sensitive environment enables women to maximize their potential as it builds self respect, confidence and selfesteem.

Prof. Sheeba Hamid from Aligarh Muslim University and Dr. Savita Rai from Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri National Sanskrit University, New Delhi delivered lectures on the occa-

Prof Sheeba in her lucid presentation emphasised the need for restructuring of gender. She said that both men and multidimensional roles played by both. She said that various steps needed to be taken by the Institutions by way of policies and structures that would enable the women to move upward. She said that Gender awareness is more analytical and critical since it clarifies issues about gender disparities and gender issues. It pertains to one's effort to show how gender shapes the role of women and men in society including their role in development and how it affects relations between them, Prof. Sheeba said.

Dr. Savita Rai in her presentation said that family is the microcosm of society and the first lesson of inclusion is learnt from the family environment. She highlighted the impact of Covid 19 on gender gap and said that more intense efforts needed to be taken at all levels to narro down the gender gap in our society.

Dr. Savita mentioned that one of the best possible strategies to minimise gender discrimination in society is to promote gender awareness at all levels of society.

Romina Chairperson of Women Cell presented the opening remarks. The event was coordinated by Dr. Danish Raina, Media Advisor BGSBU.

Sr Adv Bazmi for stopping illegal mining in Poonch

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

POONCH: Sr. Advocate and Chairman HB Faith Based Reconciliation Trust, Iftikhar Ahmed Bazmi urged the administration and Poonch Police to take strong steps for stopping the illegal mining in the district, Bazmi said that in spite of a ban on mining, the extraction of sand, Bajri, boulders etc continues unchecked and the Mining Department sits unconcerned with the illegal activities and theft of minerals during broad day light.

He asked the DDC and SSP to have a control on the extraction of minerals through illegal mining. He further said that on formal basis some JCBs involved in extraction of minerals in the poonch rivers were seized but after release these JCBs resumed their illegal activity. Bazmi appealed to the DDC Poonch and SSP to take suitable action against this mining mafia in the larger interest of the Pritam Trust Poonch members providing wheel chair to a beneficiary.
