Jammu boy selected for Challenger Trophy

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Arya Suvansh Thakur of Jammu has been selected by the BCCI for the Challenger (U-19 one-day) Trophy considering his performance in the just concluded Vinoo Mankad Trophy.

Now, Arya, a promising left-hand opening batsman represented J&K shall take part in the Challenger trophy to be held at Ahmadabad from October 25, informed Member Administration, JKCA, Brig Anil Gupta.

The teams for Challenger Trophy are selected directly by BCCI selectors based on the performance of the players in Vinoo Mankad Trophy. Thakur had performed consistently and scored two stylish half centuries apart from fielding brilliantly.

Belong to remote area of Ramnagar, Arya Thakur's talent has been recognized at the National level. He was chosen for the first time to be the member of J&K Under-19 team.

"My son always had talent but never got chance to display it. He did attend selection camps held earlier but had to return rejected every time. It is this year when fair and transparent trials were held by the newly appointed Sub-Committee to run the affairs of JKCA that my son got the nod of selectors. I am happy that his talent at last is being recognized," said Arya's father, Dr KK Thakur.

JAMMU: Ghulam Nabi Azad, former Chief Minister of J&K while expressing profound grief and sorrow over the sad demise of Vijay Choudhary, Corporator and leader of opposition of General House Jammu Municipal Corporation, has said that the void created by her death is quite hard to be filled in the coming time.

Azad stated this during his visit to the residence of Ch Mamnoon Singh, President All India Jat Mahasabha and former Mayor to convey condolence and sympathies to the bereaved family member. Paying rich tributes to the departed soul, he said that Vijay Choudhary was a great industrious woman who despite being a simple housewife laid an indelible mark in politics by dedicating her life to the public service.

The former CM Azad said that though she is not with us today but her contribution towards society and ideals will be us for all the times to come. He said that the void created due to the demise of Vijay Choudhary is irreparable and I feel that it can never be filled again.

Ch Mamnoon Singh also threw light on the life history and contribution of Mrs. Vijay
