

JKPS Kunjwani holds webinar on setting of question papers as per CBSE's latest guidelines

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: JK Public School Kunjwani organized a webinar on setting of Question Paper according to latest guidelines of CBSE.

As the Lead Collaborator School of Hub of Learning (HoL) JKPS taking the initiative invited the five schools of its hub to participate in this webinar.

In all, 15 teachers from each school, IDPS Jammu, KV Miran Sahib, Cybernetics Kunjwani, APS BD Bari and JK Public School took part.

Principal JKPS Kunjwani & Lead Collaborator (HoL) started deliberation by explaining the need for such training, types of MCQs, parts of MCQs, low order thinking and high order thinking questions.

Thereupon, Vice Principal Shashi Rattan took over, explained as to how to frame good MCQ, different types of options giving examples from different subjects.

Four subject experts, Sunny Tickoo for Mathematics, Shivani Sambyal for English, Nikhil Gupta for Physics, Rena Sanyal for Social Science deliberated upon the different types of questions from their respective subjects.

CBSE has included assertions reasoning questions, case study based questions, stimulus based questions.

This being a new concept in school assessment, teachers are at times at a loss as to how to prepare their students.

Shivani Sambyal, Coordinator (HoL) presented Vote of thanks expressing her gratitude to all the resource persons and the Principals of participating school.

Such webinars go a long way in building the proficiency among teachers.

The webinar was well thought, well designed and satisfying, it was appreciated by one and all.

Jammu Police organises 'Run For Unity'

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Jammu Police organised 'Run For Unity' at Bahu Plaza, here to give salutation to police martyrs who have sacrificed their precious lives for the motherland.

Around 250 enthusiasts participated in the event in different age categories.

The rally started from Bahu Plaza, Jammu and was flagged off by Mukesh Singh, ADGP Jammu Zone.

The rally was held in four different age categories, females, below 20 yrs, age between 20-50 yrs and above 50 yrs. Jammu Police organised the event in collaboration with Banyan International School in which Vicky Mahajan Managing Director and Principal Rajesh Kumar played a key role. Sanyog Katoch also helped in organising the event.

The students of Banyan International School performed cultural items before starting the rally thus adding enthusiasm among the participants.

The rally started from Central Park, Bahu Plaza and was flagged off by Mukesh Singh ADGP Jammu Zone in presence of Chandan Kohli, SSP Jammu and Dr. Koushal Sharma, SSP Traffic Jammu.

Other dignitaries present were Ramneesh Gupta, SP Hqrs. Jammu, Deepak Digras, SP South Jammu, Sajad Sarwar, SDPO City East Jammu and Deepak Pathania SHO Bahu Fort.

The whole event was sponsored by Anil

Communications, IW-99, Anytime Fitness Gym and Wadhera Sounds.

Around 150 medals were distributed among the participants of all the categories and special prizes were awarded to the first three winners in each category.

Age 50 above: Mukesh Singh, ADGP Jammu, Chandan Kohli, SSP Jammu and Dr. Koushal Sharma, SSP Traffic Jammu distributed prizes among the winners of rally (Children and Adults).

Below 20 yrs: Sunil Kumar, 1st, Karan Singh, 2nd and Raghav Sharma, 3rd.

Age between 20-50 yrs: Ashwani Kant, 1st, Ram Raj, 2nd and Rajesh Kumar, 3rd.

Females: Mandeep Kour, 1st, Seerat Jasrotia, 2nd and Shabnam, 3rd.

Mukesh Singh, ADGP Jammu, Chandan Kohli, SSP Jammu and Dr. Koushal Sharma, SSP Traffic Jammu distributed prizes among the winners of rally (Children and Adults).

The rally was well thought, well designed and satisfying, it was appreciated by one and all.

Maiden Doda Fencing meet held

Police officer presenting medal to a winner.

educational institutions and clubs.

The competition held at Green Model Higher Secondary School. Besides Doda, the Committee reached out to the talented stuff at a couple of other districts and organised maiden events at Ramban and Anantnag.

Earlier, at Doda, the coaching camp conducted by international fencer from J&K, Ujjwal Gupta.

The competition held at Green Model Higher Secondary School. Besides Doda, the Committee reached out to the talented stuff at a couple of other districts and organised maiden events at Ramban and Anantnag.

The competition held at Green Model Higher Secondary School. Besides Doda, the Committee reached out to the talented stuff at a couple of other districts and organised maiden events at Ramban and Anantnag.

Abdul Gani of Muneerkotla wins Ragoora-Sidhra Dangal

Rana expresses happiness over wrestling gaining popularity among youth

STATE TIMES NEWS

SIDHRA: Abdul Gani of Muneer Kotla Punjab on Tuesday defeated Pritpal of Phagwara in the Ragoora-Sidhra Dangal held at Ragoora, now famous for wrestling competitions.

In all 48 bouts were held in the much watched competition between wrestlers from Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Delhi and Jammu.

"Winning and losing are part of the game and the key point of the Dangal competition remains that the wrestlers gave this best, which will serve as an inspiration for the budding wrestlers of Jammu", Former MLA and BJP leader, Devender Singh Rana said while giving away the championship trophy at a brief function held after the final wrestling bout.

The former MLA observed that wrestling remains a passion for its practitioners and fans whose number is growing, notwithstanding the challenge being posed by other popular games. The keenness of youngsters towards wrestling can be attributed to the game catching the imagination of the sports lovers across the world in the wake of live performances of the wrestlers of international fame, he added.

Former MLA, Devender Singh Rana introducing wrestlers.

Mayor of Jammu Chander Mohan Gupta was the Guest of Honour on the occasion besides BDC Nagrota Ch Rehmat Ali, Mohd Sultan and others were present.

Rana said Dangal is a traditional sport, revival of which is a welcome sign. The response of the fans is reassuring that the game still holds big promise for talented youth, Rana said and congratulated the competitors for making the event live and breath-taking.

Rana hoped that the initiative taken by the organizers will inspire youngsters towards sports from a big way. He described sports as imperative for overall personality development and urged the youth to participate in the games, alongside pursuing academics.

Organised by Dangal Committee Rangoora, led by Abdul Mehmood, Mushtaq Ahmed, Irfan Ahmed, Khan Mohd, Ab Hameed and others, the Dangal remained a talking point for a large number of fans who thronged from peripheral areas, as also from Jammu.

Rana wished the organizers success in all their endeavours and hoped that the initiative would grow on a larger scale with participation of many more wrestlers from the other parts of the country as well.

YS&S organises wall-climbing event under Iconic Week Fest at Surinsar

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Youth Services and Sports Department on Tuesday organised a wall climbing event under the ongoing Iconic Week Festival at Surinsar.

The event witnesses overwhelming participation of students from Higher Secondary School Surinsar and local youth of adjoining areas.

Divisional Commissioner Jammu, Dr Raghav Langer, who was chief guest on the occasion, appreciated the participants for their enthusiastic participation in this sports event. He said that such events in these far off parts play a significant role in further encouraging aging youth towards taking games as an integral part of their lives for their overall personality development.

Div Com Jammu, Dr Raghav Langer and others witnessing wall-climbing event.

The Div Com, while highlighting the broad contours of the event, said that the Iconic Week festival is an initiative of Jammu and Kashmir Government towards tapping the tourism potential of the region. Among others CEO Surinsar Mansar Development Authority, Gurvinderjeet Singh, Deputy Director YSS, Jatinder Mishra; District Youth Services and Sports Officer, Sukhdev Raj; other senior officers of YSS and Tourism besides DDC member Nagrota, Joginder Langoh, Sarpanch Surinsar, Bodh Raj, Dogri Singer, Varsha Jamwal attended the function.

Directorate of Tourism, Jammu

In Collaboration with District Administration Kishtwar

Celebrates ICONIC WEEK FESTIVAL On 27th Oct., 2021

Spirit of Jammu & Kashmir

Venue: Saffron Saffari, Pochhal
6:00 am - 8:00 am

FAM Tour to Saffron/ Tourist Destinations
(Hatta, Pochhal & Matta)

Venue: Marathon at Chowgan
Timing: 04:00 pm - 04:30 pm

Venue: Cultural Programme
at Chowgan
Timing: 06:00 pm - 08:00 pm