J&K people deliberately deprived of genuine rights for 73 years: Sinha

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha on Monday said that for 73 years, people in Jammu and Kashmir were deliberately kept deprived of their genuine rights.

"Some people established a system for their personal and political benefits only", the Lieutenant Governor said while addressing Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyay Smriti Vyakhyan, organised by Research & Development Foundation for Integral Humanism, through virtual conference.

Sinha added that within two years, the difference can be seen on the ground.

The Lt Governor said that today's transformation in every sector of the UT has brought economic strength to march towards a golden future.

"We are making every effort to ensure that benefits of development reach all sections of the society. We have accelerated efforts to improve physical infrastructure in the UT. Special schemes for youth & women to contribute to sustainable development", added the Lt Governor.

While paying rich tributes to Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyay and Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee, the Lt Governor said that they were the visionaries who laid the foundation for the complete integration of Jammu and Kashmir with the nation.

The Lt Governor said that after the integration, strengthening of PRIs was one of the major steps taken in the UT, which has ensured greater participation of people in the developmental activities. The delivery system of welfare programs has been made more effective with accountability and transparency in the government machinery.

"I express my heartfelt gratitude to Prime Minister Narendra Modi ji, who for the first time in 2019 straightened the decades-long reverse cycle and also sowed the seeds of justice, liberty, equality, social democracy, and good governance for all the citizens of Jammu and Kashmir, realizing the dream of Pandit Deen Dayal ji and Dr. Shyama Prasad Mookerjee ji", he said.

Referring to the reforms being introduced by the present dispensation taking development in the UT to new heights, the Lt Governor said that the future of any region can be seen in policy governance

Still in NC, but ready to make any sacrifice for safeguarding interests of Jammu region: Rana

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Amid speculation that he is going to resign from the National Conference, its Jammu provincial president Devender Singh Rana on Monday said he has not submitted his resignation yet, but added he can make any sacrifice in the interests of Jammu region and its people.

He appealed to all political parties of Jammu region, including the BJP, to unite and adopt the Jammu declaration to safeguard the interests of the region like the people in Kashmir and the Union Territory of Ladakh stood up above their political and religious affiliations and took a stand on issues concerning their regions.

"I have not submitted my resignation so far and...I am still the provincial president of the J&K National Conference. Whatever I do, I will brief you, Rana told reporters at his residence here.

Rana, a former MLA, was reacting to the reports that he is going to resign from the party post which he had taken over in 2011 after relinquishing as political advisor to then chief minister

Omar Abdullah.

Several leaders of different political parties, including former minister Choudhary Lal Singh who heads the Dogra Swabhimani Sangathan Party (DWSP) and is campaigning for a separate state of Jammu, met him during the day.

"It is my responsibility to welcome anyone whether a brother, a friend or a guest who visits my residence.... I am repeating what I have been saying that there will be no compromise over the interests of Jammu region and the wishes and

Farm laws have been stayed, what are you protesting against: SC to farmers' body

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The three new farm laws have already been stayed, the Supreme Court said on Monday and asked a farmers' body what is it protesting against when these legislations are not in place.

A bench of Justices A M Khanwilkar and C T Ravikumar said where is the question of going on protest once a party has already approached the court challenging the validity of the laws.

When Attorney General K K Venugopal referred to the Lakhimpur Kheri incident in which eight people were killed on Sunday, the bench said nobody takes the responsibility when such incidents happen.

Solicitor General Tushar Mehta told the bench that once the matter is before the highest Constitutional court, nobody can be on the streets on the same issue.

The top court was hearing a plea filed by a farmers' body protesting against the three new farm laws and seeking directions to authorities to allow it to stage 'satyagrah' at Jantar Mantar here.

Kisan Mahapanchayat', the farmers and agriculturists body, and its president have also sought directions to the concerned authorities to provide space to at least 200 farmers or protestors of the body at the Jantar Mantar for organising peaceful

Some of 68 people recommended by SC collegium set to be appointed as HC judges soon: Sources

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Some of the 68 people recommended by the Supreme Court collegium are set to be appointed as judges of various high courts in the next few days, sources aware of the procedure for appointment to the higher judiciary said on Monday.

Some of the files on recommendations are in the "advanced" stage of the process, the sources said. The appointments will not happen in one go and will take place in batches, the sources indicated.

There was no clarity yet on the number of names being cleared by the government for appointments in the first batch. Between August 8 and September 1 this year, the apex court collegium had processed over 100 names recommended by various high courts and had finally sent 68 names to the government for appointment as judges to 12 high courts. Out of the 68 names, two from Karnataka and one from Jammu and Kashmir have been sent for a third time, while 10 others have been recommended for a second time. The rest are fresh recommendations.

The combined sanctioned strength of judges in the 25 high courts of the country is 1,098. As on September 1, there were 465 vacancies, according to data placed in the public domain by the Law Ministry.
