

Union MoS Social Justice, Empowerment e-inaugurates various projects

STATE TIMES NEWS

BANDIPORA: As a part of Central Government's outreach to J&K, Union Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment Ramdas Athawale on Wednesday e-inaugurated various developmental projects in Bandipora. He also participated in Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav activities and met several public delegations. During his visit, the Minister formally e-inaugurated the 1000 LPM Oxygen Generation Plant at Government District Hospital

Bandipora installed at the cost of Rs 6.75 Crores. He also inaugurated the complex of Government Middle School Saderkoot Bala and Government Primary School Sadunara.

The Minister also released a book on domestic violence compiled by Mahila Shakti Kendra Bandipora and One Stop Centre Bandipora in collaboration with the district administration. He said that the PM wants his ministers to assess on-ground situation and take feedback from the public to bring about positive changes.

Later the minister interacted with public delegations who highlighted their grievances and raised several demands before the Minister. Athwale assured that the government will attend to their grievances on priority basis.

Later the minister also visited sector head-quarter BSF at Madder and interacted with BSF Jawans. He hailed their services in protecting the lives of the people and the integrity of the country.
