Issue advisory of DPs to DMRR Secy: JK SAC appeals LG

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

R S PURA: Jammu Kashmir Sharnathi Action Committee (JKSAC) urged upon LG Manoj Sinha to issue Advisory to Secretary DMRRR to include the remaining, over 4,000 POK DP families left out of the PM relief package of Rs 5.5 Lakhs for want of mandatory requirements to establish the status of DP.

It demanded that certified supplementary records of these bonafide left-out DP families is available in PRO office be considered in the mandatory list to allow them to avail the benefits of relief assistance provided under PMDP-2015.

Addressing the meeting of DPs held at Barsalpur R.S.Pura, Gurdev Singh President JK SAC alongwith

JKSAC members during the meeting at R S Pura.

Netar Parkash (Gen. Secy.), Dwarka Nath Khajuria and Bhagwan Singh said that the ex-gratia relief has been provided to 26,319 families of DPs from POK. Out of which relief has been disbursed to approx. 20,000 families till date and about 1,000 cases are under process including the disputed cases. He said that out of 26,319 POK DP families settled in Jammu region, approx. 5,000 families have not been considered for payment of relief for want of mandatory requirements which are either missing/torn or gone waste with the passage of time due to negligence of the concerned administration. The supplementary records of these families such as ration cards, mutation of their allotted lands, Jamabandies, copies of register cancellation and record of their native land in POK is available with PRO office and in addition to this the records of their native lands in POK is also available in record rooms of Poonch and Baramulla. The certified copies of native places can be obtained from these district headquarter.

He appealed to LG Manoj Sinha to take the holistic view and issue advisory to the DMRRR Secy. to include the remaining DPs for the benefit on the basis of supplementary records available with the PRO Jammu and also at Poonch/Baramulla. He also urged the Lt. Governor to extend the disbursement period upto ending March 2022 so the benefit could reach all the bonafide DPs.
