Recipes

Gluten-free Tahini Cookies

Ingredients
3/4 cup powdered buckwheat (kuttu)
4 tablespoon tahini
1/3 teaspoon baking soda
sesame seeds as required
4 tablespoon maple syrup
1/2 cup ground almonds
1 teaspoon vanilla essence

Method:
To prepare these amazing cookies, take a bowl and mix maple syrup, tahini and vanilla essence until fully combined and there are no lumps remaining in your mixture.

Mix in ground almonds until fully combined. In a separate bowl, combine sifted buckwheat flour and baking soda. Add it to the tahini mixture in 3 batches. The mixture will be thick and sticky so it's best to use your hands.

Divide dough into 12 even pieces. Roll each piece into a ball and dip it in a plate of sesame seeds (if using), press the ball down with a bottom of a glass to create a 1/2 cm thick 5 cm (2 in) diameter disc.

Once you get all the discs coated in sesame seeds. Put them into the fridge for about 40 minutes. When it's 30 minutes in, pre-heat the oven to 175° C / 350° F

Bake in a hot oven for 10-12 minutes. Remove the biscuits from the oven, transfer them to a cooling rack and let them cool down completely before eating.

Tips
You can also store these cookies in an airtight container in the refrigerator.
