SRINAGAR: J&K Sports Council embarking on a mission to extend the reach of sports activities to far-off areas of the J&K has now added a new vertical to the programme, tapping the talent in school. In one of its first kind, a two-day special talent hunt programme commenced in Government Girls Higher Secondary School (GGHSS) Chanapora Srinagar on Friday.

On day one, more than five hundred students from different schools under the cluster of GGHSS Chanapora along with students from the host school participated in day-long selection trials at the premises. The selection trials were conducted by the Sports Council coach duo of Syed Shafqat Shafi and Shabir Ahmad in Judo and Yoga respectively. The students had registered themselves for the selection trials well in advance with the physical education wing of the school.

The selection trials in the disciplines of Judo and Yoga held today shall follow with trials in Football, Cricket, and Pencak Silat tomorrow.

The popular Jat leader was speaking as chief guest after inaugurating a Dangal competition organized at Jat Stadium in Dayala Chak. SSP Benam Tosh and Raj Sharma were the special invites in the Dangal.

Earlier, the AIJMS President was accorded rousing reception for the significant role he played for ensuring reservation for the Jat Community people.

Hailing his extraordinary contribution to achieve the goal of reservation for Jats of J&K, the people said in one voice that without his support and leadership this historic feat was difficult to achieve.

Addressing the gathering, the former Mayor said that after getting the reservation for the community the next goal of Jats should be to educate children and ensure that they don't fall prey to drugs and substance abuse because many communities have perished after their youths had become entangled in drug abuse. He said that though the police is doing its job, parents have greater responsibility to keep their wards away from drugs. He said that the community can take advantage of reservation only when the children have a good number of degrees in hand so it is imperative that every Jat youth holds a degree in hand with competitive marks as today is the time of cut throat competition and with passing marks there is no scope despite having reservation.
