

Shiv Sena holds protest, reminds HM of promise for special status under Section 371

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The activists of Shiv Sena Jammu and Kashmir unit on Tuesday staged a vigorous protest with Tricolour in their hands to draw attention towards their promises including restoration of statehood and demands for special status under section 371 on the arrival of Home Minister Amit Shah in Jammu and Kashmir.

Shiv Saniks led by Manish Sahni party state chief gathered at channi chowk near the party office, Jammu and raised slogans to get special status under section 371, restoration of statehood "Safe environment to Hindus in Kashmir", "Secure the rights of the sons of the land and the local people."

Sahni said that for the last three years, neither the people of Jammu and Kashmir have got any benefit of being a union territory nor the status of the state has been restored.

With the abrogation of Article 370 on 5th August 2019, the promises of development, employment along with protection of our cultural identity and rights of the local people are getting razed on the

Sahni said that it is our right that on the lines of Northeast and other border states of the country, Jammu and Kashmir should also be given privileges under Section 371 to protect the rights of the local people and their cultural identity.

Along with this the promises of development, peace and employment should be fulfilled.

Sahni said that Shiv Sena has geared up to get the rights of the people of Jammu and Kashmir. Protection of the rights of the local people, we are going to participate in the upcoming assembly elections and will teach a hard lesson who betrayers the locals. On this occasion President Women's Wing Meenakshi Chhibber, General Secretary Vikas Bakshi, Vice President Balwant Singh, President Kamgar Wing Raj Singh, Vice President Shashipal, Vice President Women's Wing Sukhwinder Kaur, youth secretary Rajesh Handa, President Doda Vinod Kotwal, Meenakshi, Mangu Ram, Sunny Kumar and many other leaders and workers were present.

APSCC seek restoration of statehood before assembly elections

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: All Parties Sikh Coordination Committee (APSCC) has referred to the visit of Home Minister Amit Shah to Jammu & Kashmir as an initiation of the electoral process in the union territory. The Committee has demanded restoration of statehood to Jammu & Kashmir before the holding of assembly elections.

In a statement, APSCC Chairman Jagmohan Singh Raina said that assembly elections can wait in Jammu & Kashmir adding that the restoration of statehood should be done at the earliest. He said that people of Jammu & Kashmir are yearning for the restoration of statehood and it would be apt to make an announcement about the same at the earliest. He urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to take a lead in this regard.

"Addressing public rallies at Rajouri and Baramulla is a clear indication that the Government of India wants to start the electoral process in Jammu & Kashmir. The union government also wants to highlight its working in Kashmir so as to spell out its agenda for the forthcoming assembly elections," said Raina.

The APSCC Chairman said that for the last one year or so the Bharatiya Janta Party (BJP) is pursuing its agenda with full force in Jammu & Kashmir. He said that issues like digitalisation, issuance of golden cards for availing free health services, free gas connection for BPL families and issuance of land passbooks to the land holders in Jammu & Kashmir are likely to dominate the pre-election discourse in the union territory.

"Packages announced from time to time by the union government have led to division among the various sections of the society in Jammu and Kashmir. Gujjars have got political voice since a member of the community has been nominated to the Rajya Sabha while as Paharis have got four percent reservation," said Raina.

The APSCC Chairman said that Kashmiri Pandits got number of packages in the past three decades with thousands of youth of the community getting adjusted in the government departments. He said that on the other hand the Sikh minority community got nothing with even centuries old Punjabi language losing recognition in Jammu & Kashmir. Raina appealed to Home Minister to ensure equal distribution of benefits to all the communities so that justice is delivered.
