President AIJMS, Ch Manmohan Singh posing with others after the meeting.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SAMBA: Citing the famous English phrase 'united we stand, divided we fall', Choudhary Manmohan Singh, President All India Jat Mahasabha (AIJMS) and former Mayor appealed to the women of the community to join the proposed Mahila Adhiveshan in large numbers to showcase strength and unity on October 9, 2022 at Babliyana Jammu.

The Jat leader was addressing a meeting of AIJMS here at Ramgarh in Vijaypur. Today's programme was organized by Surinder Choudhary and Kashmir Singh Choudhary. Choudhary Manmohan Singh asked the Jat women folks to get united as soon as possible to mount pressure on the government to fulfill the aspirations of the Jats as individual approach in this regard can be futile and fruitless. He said that AIJMS is holding an exclusive women convention for the community members as an initiative to show to the government that how many households are waiting justice for their community. He said that this aspect makes it imperative for all the community households to ask their women folks to become part of this convention as the strength of Jat women will open up the eyes of the government and those sitting at helm will no longer take the aspirations of Jats as for granted.

Choudhary Manmohan Singh said that the need of the hour is that Jat community members shun their differences whether political or social or any other and come on the common platform viz Mahila Adhiveshan and show the government that it is not in its interest to ignore such a large population which have the strength to change the political course of the party in majority. He said that behind this show of strength, there is only one motive and that is early grant of OBC status for all Jats.
