terment of their lives.

Deputy Commissioner, Vikas Kunal assured the public that all their concerns have been meticulously documented and that each genuine issue would be addressed with the intervention of the respective departments in a phased and time-bound manner.

To encourage the spirit of collaboration, the Deputy Commissioner acknowledged the invaluable contribution of all stakeholders who have played a vital role in achieving the objectives of government initiatives. He fervently encouraged them to persist in their hard work for the greater good of the common masses.

The Deputy Commissioner also issued on-the-spot directives to the concerned departments to prioritize and resolve the issues flagged by the public. Remarkably, several issues found resolution right there with the prompt intervention of the dedicated departments.

In response to the concerns raised regarding Middle School Kunda, the Deputy Commissioner directed the Tehsildar to demarcate the land of the school. Similarly, he instructed the concerned officer to address the road issue from Sainsamad to Dodasan with utmost urgency. The matter of the shortage of electricity poles was also brought to attention, and the DC assured the public that he would take up the matter with the concerned department to expedite the necessary action.

Regarding Jal Jeevan Mission schemes, the Deputy Commissioner assured the public that the pending work in various panchayats will be taken up on a priority, signaling a commitment to improving water accessibility in the region. This demonstrates the dedication of the administration to enhancing the quality of life for residents by ensuring access to clean water.

Shifting the focus to the Power Development Department (PDD), the Deputy Commissioner urged the public to fulfill their responsibility by paying their electricity bills on time. This call for timely payments is crucial to sustaining the power supply and maintaining the infrastructure.

Furthermore, the Deputy Commissioner addressed concerns related to the Dodasan Balla upper schools. He also assured to resolve the issues that have arisen in these educational institutions. This commitment to resolving education-related problems shows a clear dedication to the betterment of the academic resources of the areas, which is vital for the development and empowerment of the community.

In conclusion, the Deputy Commissioner Vikas Kunal emphasized the paramount importance of sustained progress and cooperation among all stakeholders to enhance the quality of life for the citizens of the district.

The Weekly Block Diwas, held at Saj panchayat of block Plangarh, emerged as an overwhelming success, with numerous public issues being discussed and promptly resolved.

The Block Diwas initiative stands as a shining example of effective governance, demonstrating the dedication of the district administration to finding swift and practical solutions to the issues that matter most to the people it serves.

Among the others, BDC Plangarh, Parveen Akhter; ACP, Sheraz Chowhan; AC Defence, Saleem Quershi; DPO, Anil Nuaid; AD Employment, Muqis Ali; XEN Jal Shakti Rajouri, Ashwini Sharma; XEN Jal Shakti Mechanical; XEN PMGSY Budhal, Intiyaz Mir and other district and sectoral officers attended the event.

Shrimad Bhagwat Katha begins with "Kalash Yatra" at SVS Gyan Ganga Ashram

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NOWSHERA: A huge "Kalash Yatra" was taken out with great enthusiasm and religious fervour on Wednesday. The Yatra started from Sanatan Dharam Sabha Mandir headed by His Holiness Atal Pethadeshwar Rajguru A c h a r y a Mahamandaleswar Shri Shri 1008 Shri Swami Vishwamanand Saraswati ji Maharaj accompanied by scores of devotees hailing from different parts of JK UT. During the entire yatra route, devotees performed various dance with drum beats and chanted bhajans in favour of Lord Krishna with zeal and gaiety.

The Yatra passed through various locations and covered areas like Raghunath Bazar, City chowk, Moti Bazar, Old Bus stand and finally culminated at SVS Gyan Ganga Ashram where "Shrimad Bhagwat Tatva Gyan Yagya (Bhagwat Katha)" is being organised starting from 25th of October to 1st of November. The members of SVS Ashram Committee Rajouri welcomed Swamiji and devotees by showering flowers. Later, parshad was distributed among the devotees.

While speaking during the inaugural function, Swamiji briefed the gathering about the importance of Bhagwat Katha in every-one's life and how one can take the path of self realization by reading and listening the religious discourses. Swamiji started the katha by saying that by listening the Bhagwat Katha, one can change his way of life to large extent. Swamiji further said that our expressions only give birth to falsehood and makes the world untrue ultimately. To carry forward the story, Swamiji said that God is in all, but he is also the most different, he is with us every moment. The Bhagwat Saptah involves reading, preaching, interpretation and singing of verses of the Shrimad Bhagwat and it was filled with colours of devotion, laughter, tales of separation and union with almighty.
