

IIT Alumni Day Technocrats can add value to Civil Services delivery: Dr Jitendra

STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Union Minister Dr Jitendra Singh on Sunday said, Technocrats can add value to Civil Services delivery.

Educational background of technocrats and their expertise can help optimally accomplish many a Flagship Programmes initiated by the Government headed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, particularly because most of these are technology driven like SVAMITVA, Gati Shakti, DBT, Face Recognition Technology for DLC etc, he said.

The Union Minister was addressing the IIT Delhi Alumni Public Service Day function.

Dr Jitendra said, under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India is now steering the world in innovative technologies. We are on course to our target on reducing Greenhouse gases emission and achieve Net Zero by 2070.

India is today one of the leading users of non-conventional energy including electric automobiles, wind & solar energy and the world's first Hydrogen powered bus has been made in India, said the Minister. The world is looking up to us for leads Dr Jitendra said, we are today among the world's top five economies and India has jumped from 81st to 40th rank in the Global Innovation Index, 2022. During the COVID pandemic, India not only saved its own population but also helped the world by providing vaccines and we also delivered the world's first DNA vaccine.

Dr Jitendra said, our Chandrayaan Mission was the first to discover evidence of water on the Moon and the Aditya-L1 solar mission is led by a woman Director. PM Modi has provided an enabling milieu to India's endeavours in Space research, and S&T. PM Modi has emerged the tallest leader in the world after the G20 Summit.

"Today the world is ready to be led by India. The declaration of International Yoga Day and International Year of Millets by the UN is proof of our rising stature. Now is the time for all of us Indians to rise to the occasion and seize the opportunity," he said.

Dr Jitendra said, the role of IIT Engineers is both active and passive in today's times, active as they are looked up by the society as highly qualified and expert brains, tech savvy whereas the IITians also being members of the same society, they have a responsibility to motivate the society they live in and are a part of, without intimidation.

The youth today are not only seeking jobs but acting as job providers by turning entrepreneurs with their own Startups.

"Today there are over 3,000 Agritech Startups and are very successful in areas like Aroma Mission and Lavender cultivation, quite a few of them do not have high qualifications, but are very innovative," he said.

The National Education Policy, NEP-2020 addresses such issues and has liberated the students from being "prisoners of their aspirations", he said, adding that the age of working in silos is over.

Dr Jitendra Singh called for wider synergy among all streams of profession for achieving the "Amrit Kaal" goals over the next 25 years. He said the dictum is the whole of science plus the whole of government plus the whole of the nation.

Govt Schools of Jammu Division organize special mega PTM

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Government schools falling in Jammu Division organised a mega Parent Teacher Meet (PTM) on Automated Permanent Academic Account Registry (APAAR) which is a new initiative of Government of India focusing on the creation of Unique ID's of the students. The teachers/Faculty counsellors sensitised the students' parents about the benefits of this Unique ID and sought the consent of the Parents regarding sharing the details of the students with the Ministry of Education, Government of India for creation of Unique ID. Many parents have given their written consent for the same and the process of receiving the parental consents has been expedited.

Director School Education Jammu, Ashok Sharma in his message said that it will be a lifelong ID and will reflect detailed information about the student like academic progress, achievements (Olympiad, sports, skill training), scholarship disbursement, transfer of govt. benefits, holistic report card, skill training and sports activities of the student etc. The students can use their credit score for their higher education and employment purposes in future. It will help in achieving the objective of 'One Nation and One student ID'. He complemented the efforts of Heads of the institutions and Teachers concerned in making Special PTM a successful drive. He has also complemented the efforts of Counselling cell, DSEJ for organisation of this mega drive.

Monthly PTM has become a regular feature in Govt. schools of Jammu division and it is leading to a paradigm shift in teacher parent relationship.

Bhavishya Academy organises 'Kala Darpan 2023: An Ode to Lord Krishna'

Priya Sethi emphasizes for preservation of rich cultural heritage of J&K

Senior BJP leader, Priya Sethi being honoured during the programme.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Bhavishya Academy, under the visionary guidance of Parul Bhateja, a devoted disciple of Pt. Jai Kishan Maharaj (S/o Pt. Birju Maharaj), and Gauri Divakar, left an indelible mark on the cultural landscape with its enchanting event, "Kala Darpan 2023: An Ode to Lord Krishna."

This remarkable celebration of Kathak dance and classical music took place at the esteemed Pracheen Kala Kendra in Chandigarh.

The grandeur of "Kala Darpan 2023" was elevated by the presence of Priya Sethi, Senior BJP Leader and former Minister, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The event was further adorned by the presence of Sheetal Nanda, Commissioner Secretary of the Social Welfare Department in the Government of Jammu and Kashmir, who played the role of the Guest of Honour. Special guests included Sunaina Mehta, Joint Director of Tourism, and Vandana Jasrotia, Head Mistress of Heritage School.

The event commenced with a ceremonious inauguration led by Charu Bhateja.

Under the visionary leadership of Parul Bhateja, Director of Bhavishya Academy, the Kathak dance spectacle unfolded its splendour. Parul Bhateja's ensemble featured accomplished musicians, including Suraj Singh, an acclaimed Gazal artist, and Amit Anand, a Tabla virtuoso holding a Masters degree in Tabla from GNDU University in Amritsar.

The evening presented a vibrant tapestry of Kathak performances interwoven with live classical music, ushering in a novel and harmonious interpretation of this classical Indian dance form. The audience, comprising guests, classical art aficionados, and enthusiasts, was deeply enthralled and showered the event with praise.

In her address, Priya Sethi emphasized the pressing need to preserve and propagate our rich cultural heritage. She lauded Bhavishya Academy, an esteemed institution dedicated to Classical Dance, for orchestrating this monumental Kathak event.

She articulated, "Dance and music transcend the confines of borders, binding people together in a unique harmony that fosters a society free from tension and animosity. Music knows no boundaries; it touches the soul and creates an atmosphere of serenity. The success of artists is mirrored in the profound serenity that resonates within the audience."

Priya Sethi highlighted the pivotal role that music and dance play in the preservation of culture and expressed her hope that young artists would receive the recognition and encouragement they rightfully deserve in their pursuits. She also aspired that these talented artists would find ample opportunities to showcase their abilities on a broader canvas.
