JAMMU: Additional Director General of Police (ADGP), Jammu, Anand Jain, visited district Poonch on Saturday to review the operational preparedness and discuss various policing and securityrelated issues. As part of the visit, a series of meetings and interactions were held with senior officers, SHOs, and personnel of the Special Operations Group (SOG). In a comprehensive review meeting held at the District Police Lines, Poonch, Anand Jain met with Gazetted Officers and Station House Officers. During the meeting, the ADGP emphasized the importance of maintaining high levels of vigilance and ensuring proactive measures in dealing with any emerging law and order situation. He instructed the officers to work in close coordination with intelligence agencies and adopt a people-friendly approach while carrying out their duties. Anand Jain also stressed the importance of professional integrity, community policing, and the need to address the grievances of the public in a time-bound manner. He urged the officers to strengthen the police-public relationship, highlighting that the police force must act as a bridge between the community and the law. Following the meeting, Anand Jain conducted a darbar with personnel of the Special Operations Group (SOG) deployed in Poonch.

The ADGP Jammu lauded the efforts of the SOG in tackling terrorism and maintaining peace in the region. He urged the personnel to remain steadfast in their commitment to the security of the region and be unwavering in their dedication to regional security.

Later, Anand Jain visited the SOG camp in Poonch, where he inspected the facilities and interacted with the officers and person nel stationed. He assessed the operational readiness of the camp and reviewed the ongoing operations. He expressed satisfaction with the preparedness and encouraged the personnel to continue their efforts in ensuring peace and stability in the district.

Concluding his visit, the ADGP inspected Police Station Poonch to review its functioning and infrastructure.

He took stock of the crime records, security arrangements, and the overall work environment at the police station. He also interacted with the staff and lauded their dedication and efforts in maintaining law and order in the district.
