DC Doda reviews working of Revenue Department

STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: Deputy Commissioner Harvinder Singh on Wednesday conducted a comprehensive review of the working of the Revenue Department here at a meeting held in his Office chamber.

Assessing the progress on critical revenue-related matters, the meeting focused on digitization and updating of Jamabandis, land records and strategies for efficient land management and public service delivery. The session saw the participation of ADC Sudershan Kumar; ACR Sunil Bhutyal; besides SDMs, Tehsildars and other officials from the Revenue Department.

The primary focus of the meeting was to assess the ongoing digitization of revenue records, a step aimed at improving transparency and accessibility for citizens. DC Singh emphasized the importance of completing the digitization process within the stipulated time frame, underscoring that digital records would play a crucial role in resolving land disputes and reducing manual workload for revenue officials. He urged the officials to ensure accuracy in record entries and suggested regular monitoring of digitization progress, advising that dedicated teams be formed for timely completion. The meeting also discussed the Jamabandi process, an essential exercise in maintaining and updating land ownership records. DC Singh directed all Tehsildars and SDMs to prioritize Jamabandi updates and ensure thorough verification to prevent inaccuracies. He further instructed the officials to address any pending land mutation cases, highlighting that delays in mutation were a primary cause of citizen grievances. Additionally, he emphasized the need for improved coordination between the Revenue Department and local landowners to facilitate smoother record maintenance and ownership validation processes.

Instructing the Revenue Department to enhance the public grievance redress mechanism, the DC emphasized the importance of a citizen-centric approach.

ADC Pawan Kotwal, along with other district officials, also extended their greetings to all present.

The Deepawali Milan concluded with attendees exchanging words of goodwill and greetings, symbolizing a collective hope for a bright future.

The event was graced by the presence of SSP, Abdul Qayoom, ADC, Pawan Kotwal, ASP, Pawan Sharma, PO ICDS Dr. Rishi Kumar Sharma; ACR Idrees Lone; ACD Phulail Singh, prominent citizens, retired senior officers from civil, Police, Army, President Sanatan Dharm Sabha, Arvind Parihar and President Majlis-e-Shoura/Imam Jamia Masjid, Farooq Ahmed Kichloo besides other officers.

DC Kishtwar hosts "Deepawali Milan" to Foster Communal Harmony & Unity

STATE TIMES NEWS

KISHTWAR: As a gesture of goodwill and a prelude to the upcoming Deepawali festival, District Development Commissioner Kishtwar, Rajesh Kumar Shavan organized a heartfelt "Deepawali Milan", here today. This gathering aimed to reinforce communal harmony and rekindle the spirit of unity, as well as to inspire peace and prosperity.

With attendees from all walks of society including retired senior Officer from Civil, Police and Army ; members of Social ,political and cultural organisations; religious leaders, district and sectoral officers; Officers of Police,Army , Paramilitary besides media persons, the event reflected the true spirit of Deepawali - the victory of light over darkness and the triumph of good over evil.

In the welcome address, DC Shavan extended his warmest greetings for Deepawali and highlighted the festival's importance as a time for unity, hope, and communal harmony.

He said that today's Deepawali Milan is an occasion to come together in the spirit of love and brotherhood, reinforcing the shared values that bind us.

DC further emphasized the significance of peace as the basis of progress, urging everyone to work collectively for a peaceful, harmonious, and prosperous Kishtwar.
