World Craft Council to celebrate Diamond Jubilee

Chief Secretary, Atal Dulloo chairing a meeting.

STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: In what could be a major push towards promoting the local crafts globally, the World Craft Council (WCC) is scheduled to hold its 3-day 'World Craft Forum' here at SKICC after its first leg at New Delhi.

As per WCC, the landmark event is hosted here to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the World Crafts Council. The International body has scheduled 'World Crafts Forum' on this special occasion to be held for November 22-24 in New Delhi celebrating India's rich craft and cultural legacy. Thereafter the celebrations will continue in Srinagar from November 25-27, offering opportunities to showcase local artisanship and craft traditions to an international audience.

In this connection, the Chief Secretary, Atal Dulloo, on Wednesday held a meeting to give shape to the arrangements made for holding this landmark event here successfully. During this meeting, the besides the transportation facilities to be extended by the Motor Garages Department. Recently the Council has declared Srinagar as World Craft City thus making it one among the 66 cities recognized by the it worldwide.

It is worth mentioning that the WCC has championed the preservation and promotion of craft traditions worldwide for nearly six decades.

It has been given out that the World Crafts Forum will be attended by around 50 international artists from different nations and craft backgrounds.

This is going to foster cross-cultural exchange, empower artisans, and create sustainable development pathways for the craft sector; the meeting was appraised.

The event aims to position India at the forefront of shaping the future of crafts, while celebrating the past. It will also emphasize the restoration, preservation, and modernization of the industry; crafting a roadmap for the next decade through policy and international cooperation, being announced by WCC on its website about this event.

Besides Commissioner Secretary I&C, the meeting was attended by Divisional Commissioner, Kashmir; Deputy Commissioner, Srinagar; Director, Handicrafts & Handloom, Kashmir; Director, Tourism; Director, SMG beside and other stakeholders.

Chief Secretary directed for making this event a huge success which would eventually translate into giving boost to our local crafts at the global level thereby promoting the handicrafts sector in a big way. Atal Dulloo further directed the Handicrafts Department to create necessary awareness among the concerned artisans and craftsmen here. He asked for running these campaigns both in mainstream and social media for its far and wide publicity. Chief Secretary asked the Divisional Administration to be in close coordination with the I&C Department to hold this event in a befitting manner. He observed that this event would also serve the purpose of promoting tourism here in J&K.

He also took this occasion for taking the assessment of the accommodation of the members of WCC and artisans coming from different countries along.

He directed the Hospitality & Protocol Department to make necessary arrangements

Com JMC kick starts garbage collection at Transport Nagar

Commissioner JMC Dr. Devansh Yadav starting garbage collection at Transport Nagar, Jammu.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Commissioner JMC Dr. Devansh Yadav on Wednesday kick-started the garbage collection at Transport Nagar, Jammu in collaboration with JDA. It was realized that no mechanism of garbage collection at Transport Nagar was in place consequent of which large dumps of garbage were lying alongside the road and in the vacant plots. The adjoining nallas/drains were also filled with waste which in the monsoon season flows down in the nallas/ drains leading to over flooding. The annual Swachha Survekshan 2024 is about to start any time from now, large dump of garbage lying in Transport Nagar causing seepage in the surrounding areas reflect the poor image of sanitation in the city.

Keeping in view the gravity of this issue coordination meetings with VC Jammu Development Authority (JDA) were conducted. Joint Commissioner Health and Sanitation was directed to work out the quantum of waste lying at the site in the first instance through the Chief Transport Officer of the JMC. After working out the quantum of the waste modalities were defined with Jammu Development Authority for its collection and transportation. Commissioner directed the Health and Transport Section of JMC to accomplish the task of collecting and transporting garbage to the Kot Bhalwal dumping site in a time bound manner.

The In charge of the two material Recovery Facilities (MRF), viz IPCA - Indian Pollution Control Association (IPCA) - Bhagawati Nagar, and Regional and Urban Development Agency (RUDA) - Bhandurakh shall be informed to assess and collect the recyclable material from the garbage at the earliest. The Health and Sanitation wing of JMC was directed to collect the user charges at the notified rate of JMC from the shopkeepers of this area immediately.

Joint Commissioner JMC (Health & Sanitation) Abdul Satar, Health Officer JMC Dr. Vinod Sharma, CTO JMC S. Dharamveer Singh, Dr. Divya Sharma VAS JMC along with the vice president of the transport union and other members accompanied the commissioner. During this visit, the shopkeepers and transport union of the Transport Nagar wholeheartedly welcomed the decision taken by JMC Commissioner and assured him to render full support in accomplishing this task in a time bound manner and collection of the monthly user charges.

BSF celebrates Diwali with zeal & pride on border

BSF personnel celebrating Diwali.

STATE TIMES NEWS

SAMBA: BSF Jawans celebrated Diwali with full dignity and pride along the Indian border. At the Border Outpost Nursery, soldiers reaffirmed their commitment to national defense, declaring that ensuring a secure border is their true Diwali. Like every year, the BSF marked the festival with great enthusiasm at the zero line. DIG S.S. Mand attended as the chief guest, accompanied by Commandant C.S. Parashari and Second-in-Command R.S. Yadav. DIG

Mand praised the bravery and dedication of the soldiers guarding the borders and expressed pride in their duty of national protection. He extended Diwali greetings to the soldiers and conveyed his best wishes for their families. The enthusiasm of the soldiers was palpable as they celebrated the festival with shining spirits. DIG Mand remarked that it is their privilege to shoulder this sacred responsibility of safeguarding the nation. "Our citizens can celebrate peacefully because we stand ready to protect them," he said. "No matter how dark it may be on the borders, our spirits will never dim." This Diwali celebration by BSF soldiers once again reminded the nation that these brave hearts are ever ready to defend the country, regardless of circumstances. Their courage and zeal added a unique fervor to this Diwali festival.
