SEVENTH NAVRATRA

Maa Kaalratri

Seventh incarnation of Goddess Durga is Maa Kaalratri. Her body is jet black with spread hair and glittering like lightning with string of beads around her neck. She has three eyes round like universe and flames coming out of nostrils. Her ride is on Donkey. Out of four hands, two right arms are in blessing mode while one left hand has iron Karfa and other has Kharg. Though Maa Kaalratri appears very hard and tough, she is always 'Shubh' for her worshippers. She destroys the enemies, bad souls and hundreds of Grahak. Mantra to be recited nine times of Maa Kaalratri is -

"Om Aing Hareng Hung Hung Bhagwati Kaalratri Mum Shatruv Stambhaya Stambhaya Swaha"

ॐ ह्रीं हूं हुं भगवती कालरात्रि मम शत्रुं स्तम्भय स्तम्भय स्वाहा

J&K votes NC-Cong alliance to form Govt, BJP wins 29 seats

JAMMU & KASHMIR ASSEMBLY ELECTIONS 2024 RESULT

STATE TIMES NEWS
 SRINAGAR/JAMMU: The INDIA bloc is poised to form the first elected government in Jammu and Kashmir, having secured a victory in the assembly elections by securing 49 out of 90 seats on which polls were held for the first time since the abrogation of Article 370 five years ago.

The National Conference (NC), the oldest regional party in J&K, emerged as the clear frontrunner, winning 42 seats and falling just six seats short of a majority of its own.

Meanwhile, the Communist Party of India (Marxist) [CPI(M)] managed to secure the single seat allotted to it under the seat-sharing agreement, while the Congress party won six seats, with five of those in the Kashmir valley.

The elections in J&K virtually turned a nightmare for the Congress as it won only one seat in the Jammu region.

The BJP also made notable gains, winning 29 seats -- its best performance in J&K to date, up from 25 seats in the 2014 elections.

Despite the defeat of J&K BJP president Ravindra Raina, the party's vote share increased from 23 per cent in 2014 to 25.64 per cent this year.

However, political analysts do not read much into the JAMMU: The Jammu and Kashmir Assembly elections 2024 have concluded successfully, marking a significant moment in the UT's democratic process.

"This marked the first assembly election in Jammu and Kashmir since 2014, drawing considerable attention and participation from the public", stated Chief Electoral Officer, P K Pole on Tuesday.

"The record-breaking voter turnout has reasserted and reaffirmed the faith of public in the institutions of democracy, exhibiting and testifying explicitly the unwavering belief of masses in the power of ballot.

The elections were held in three phases, with 24 constituencies voting in the first phase, followed by 26 in the second and 40 in the third. A total of 873 candidates contested for the opportunity to represent their communities in the 90-member legislative assembly. Voter turnout increased tally of the BJP and mainly attribute it to the recent delimitation of assembly seats in which many strongholds of the BJP were bifurcated into two like Kishtwar and Nagrota

We expect PM to do honourable thing by restoring statehood to J&K: Omar
 "INDIA bloc to stake claim to form Govt only after partners elect leader of coalition"

SRINAGAR: National Conference leader Omar Abdullah on Monday said he expects Prime Minister Narendra Modi to do the "honourable thing" by restoring the statehood to Jammu and Kashmir.

"A lot of things can be done as a Union Territory, clearly some things can't but we expect that J&K will not remain a UT forever. We expect the honourable PM will do the honourable thing and return statehood to JK at the earliest and then the rest of our manifesto will be implemented," the NC vice president, who is tipped to be the next chief minister of J&K, told PTI Videos.

Abdullah, who led the NC-Congress alliance to a victory in the J&K assembly polls, hoped that the prime minister will fulfil his promise of restoring statehood to the people of the UT. "The prime minister, the home minister, they are all honourable men. In their speeches and

 SRINAGAR: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday complimented the National Conference for its performance in the Jammu and Kashmir assembly polls.

The National Conference (NC) emerged as the single largest party in Jammu and Kashmir with 42 seats and is poised to form the next government in the Union territory with its alliance

PM Modi's vision garnered more votes than NC: Chugh

STATE TIMES NEWS
 SRINAGAR: Bharatiya Janata Party leader Tarun Chugh on Tuesday said that the vision of Prime Minister Narendra Modi garnered more votes than National Conference (NC).

He expressed gratitude to the people of Jammu and Kashmir for supporting Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision.

Chugh said that BJP secured 14.62 lakh votes, lakh votes.

Chugh said that people favored BJP's development-oriented policies over the National Conference, rejecting the latter's communal and divisive politics.

He said that 1.4 million people rejected the National Conference and instead voted for the vision of PM Modi. In response to claims from Chugh said that BJP secured 14.62 lakh votes, lakh votes.
