

JK Public School Kunjwani organizes Book Exhibition to promote reading habits among students

Glimpses of book exhibition at JK Public School Kunjwani.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: JK Public School, Kunjwani, organized a two-day Book Exhibition on 8th and 9th October 2025 for the students of Classes VI to X. The exhibition was held with the objective of promoting reading habits among students and fostering their interest in books beyond the academic curriculum. The exhibition featured a wide and well-curated collection of books covering diverse subjects such as literature, science, mathematics, social studies, art, and general knowledge. Students were given the opportunity to visit the exhibition, explore the range of books available, and select titles according to their individual interests and preferences. Throughout the exhibition, students displayed immense enthusiasm and curiosity. They were seen actively engaging with the collection, discussing books with their peers, and expressing keen interest in exploring new genres and authors. Many students shared that the event not only broadened their knowledge but also encouraged them to make reading a regular and enjoyable habit. The atmosphere remained lively and engaging as students moved through different sections of the exhibition, guided and assisted by teachers and coordinators. The event successfully created a learning-rich environment that motivated students to value reading as a source of both knowledge and inspiration. The two-day exhibition concluded on a highly positive note, with overwhelming participation from students. It stood as a testament to the school's continuous efforts to provide meaningful learning experiences and to nurture intellectual curiosity among young minds.

GCOE organises Mehandi Competition

Jyoti Parihar highlighted the importance of skills among the youth. "These skills have high cultural value and by upgrading the same students can open their own start-ups and businesses," she noted. The event attracted enthusiastic participation from students as well as from Female faculty members. Around thirty students participated in the Mehandi Competition, while 10 students took part in the Rangoli Competition. Convener Cultural Committee Dr. Davinder Kour highlighted the cultural diversity of the country that is deep rooted in the Indian Value System. The Cultural Committee comprising Dr. Sushma Bala, Dr. Shalini Rana, Prof. Balwan Singh, Dr. Shubhra Jamwal, Dr. Shalini Jasrotia, Prof. Deepali Devi, Dr. Shalini Sharma and Dr. Suraj Parkash organized the event.

Satish calls on Union Minister, seeks enhanced support for sports infra

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
NEW DELHI: Minister for Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs, Information Technology, Transport, Youth Services and Sports, Satish Sharma on Thursday called on the Union Minister for Youth Affairs and Sports, Dr Mansukh Mandaviya in New Delhi and held an extensive discussion on measures to strengthen sports infrastructure, enhance youth engagement, and promote athletic excellence in Jammu & Kashmir.

During the meeting, Satish Sharma presented a comprehensive memorandum to the Union Minister, reiterating the J&K Government's commitment to transforming Jammu & Kashmir into a vibrant hub of sports and youth empowerment. The memorandum detailed key proposals focusing on infrastructure development, athlete welfare, and grassroots participation aligned with the National Sports Policy 2025 and the J&K Sports Policy 2022.

Highlighting the significance of sports as a medium for peace, unity, and integration, Satish Sharma said, "Jammu & Kashmir stands at a defining moment in its sporting journey. With the Centre's continued support, we can channelize the energy of our youth, nurture their talent, and position J&K as a model of sporting excellence and national unity."

The Minister sought the Union Government's assistance in accelerating the development of world-class sports infrastructure, including the establishment of a National Winter Sports Centre of Excellence at Gulmarg, modernization of district stadiums with all-weather facilities, and creation of sports amenities at the panchayat level to ensure equitable access for rural youth.
