Display Your Talent 2025-26 organised at GCOE

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Cultural Committee of Government College of Education, Jammu, organised a four-day long event "Display Your Talent 2025-26" under the patronage of the worthy Principal, Dr. Jyoti Parihar. Students of ITEP and B.Ed. showcased their talents in various creative fields such as Painting, Collage Making, Cartooning, Poster Making, Mehndi, Rangoli, Singing, Acting, and Dance. The event served as a vibrant platform for students to express their artistic abilities and creativity.

This four-day celebration fostered a spirit of community, innovation, and appreciation for India's rich cultural heritage. Such programmes play a vital role in allowing students to shine and enhance their skills in a supportive and encouraging environment.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Dr. Davinder Kour, Convenor of the Cultural Committee. The Proceedings were conducted by Saiyushi, and the Vote of Thanks was proposed by Dr. Shubhra Jamwal.

Other committee members who coordinated the event included Dr. Sushma Bala, Dr. Shalini Rana, Prof. Balwan Singh, Prof. Kiran Thapa, Dr. Ambika, Dr. Shalini Sharma, Prof. Deepali, and Dr. Suraj Prakash.

Sainik Samaj Party invites candidates for Nagrota, Budgam By-Elections

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: On behalf of the Sainik Samaj Welfare President, Col. Sushil Singh Pathania (Retd.), a press release has been issued announcing that the Sainik Samaj Party, Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory (JKUT) is inviting candidates to contest the upcoming Nagrota and Budgam by-elections under the party's banner. Col. S.S. Pathania, Chief Convenor and President of the Sainik Samaj Party JKUT, appealed to patriotic citizens, ex-servicemen, and socially committed individuals to join the party's mission and participate actively in the democratic process. He emphasized that the existing political structure needs a transformative change through alternative, constructive, and nation-centric policies.

"It is time for good, competent, dynamic, nationalist, and uncorrupt individuals to enter politics and ensure the welfare and development of our Union Territory and its people," Col. Pathania stated. He expressed concern that 46 percent of the current Lok Sabha members face serious criminal charges, pointing out that such trends will only worsen unless honest citizens join politics and political parties reform their selection criteria for candidates.

Highlighting the core principles of the party, Col. Pathania reiterated that the Sainik Samaj Party stands for good governance, clean politics, and the spirit of 'service before self.'

The party advocates a transparent, accountable, and corruption-free administration, focusing on the development of border and rural areas along with the welfare of veterans, serving soldiers, and their families.

Recalling the positive public response during previous Assembly elections in Jammu East and Jammu West constituencies, Pathania said the party is further motivated to expand its base and strengthen its reach among aware and responsible citizens.

He reaffirmed the party's demand for a separate UT/State for the people of Jammu region, with the inclusion of Article 371 provisions to safeguard local employment, land ownership, and the preservation of the region's rich art and culture.

Col. Pathania concluded by urging young and patriotic individuals to come forward with a selfless spirit, dedicated to serving the people, empowering communities, and taking the nation to greater heights.

Sanjay Anand assumes charge as Joint Director Agriculture (Ext) Jammu

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Sanjay Anand on Friday assumed charge as Joint Director Agriculture Extension, Jammu in the presence of Anil Gupta, Director Agriculture Jammu at the Directorate of Agriculture, Jammu.

The joining ceremony was attended by Dr. Ashwani Sharma, Joint Director Agriculture Inputs, Tilak Raj Sharma, Agriculture Economist, Vinod Kumar Sharma, Agriculture Chemist, Raju Mahajan, PPO Jammu, Kuldeep Singh, ADLE Jammu, other senior officers of the Directorate, and staff members. Officers from other districts also joined the occasion to extend their greetings to Sh. Sanjay Anand on his new assignment.

Speaking on the occasion, Director Agriculture Jammu, Anil Gupta, welcomed Sanjay Anand to his new role and expressed confidence that under his leadership, the Extension Wing of the department will further strengthen its outreach to farmers.

Sanjay Anand thanked the department for reposing faith in him and assured that he would put in dedicated efforts to serve the farming community of Jammu division.

Keshav Chopra distributes welfare cards to locals

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Social Activist and Chairman of Samvedna Society, Keshav Chopra, organized a public outreach and welfare distribution drive in Jammu, during which he distributed Ayushman Bharat Cards, ABHA (Ayushman Bharat Health Account) Cards, and Voter ID Cards among local residents, including youth and senior citizens.

Speaking on the occasion, Keshav Chopra said that the initiative aims to ensure that the benefits of various government welfare schemes reach every section of society, particularly the underprivileged and those unaware of their entitlements. He also congratulated first-time voters and encouraged them to actively participate in strengthening democracy by exercising their right to vote responsibly.

Highlighting the benefits of the Ayushman Bharat Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (AB-PMJAY), Chopra informed that the scheme provides health insurance coverage of ₹5 lakh per family per year for secondary and tertiary care hospitalization. The initiative enables cashless access to quality healthcare services at empaneled public and private hospitals across the country, reducing the financial burden on poor and vulnerable families.

He further elaborated on the Ayushman Bharat Health Account (ABHA) Card, emphasizing its role in promoting digital health empowerment. The ABHA Card allows individuals to securely store, access, and share their medical records and health data digitally, thereby enabling a seamless, paperless, and efficient healthcare system. Through this initiative, citizens can easily connect with hospitals, doctors, and diagnostic centers nationwide.

Appreciating the efforts of the Government of India and the J&K Administration, Chopra lauded their continuous commitment toward improving healthcare infrastructure and promoting digital inclusion at the grassroots level. He assured that Samvedna Society will continue to spread awareness about welfare schemes, drug prevention, and citizen empowerment, ensuring that no deserving individual is left behind.

Local residents expressed heartfelt gratitude to Keshav Chopra and the Samvedna team for organizing the welfare drive and assisting them in availing the benefits of these transformative government initiatives.
