attract over 10,000 visitors, and the public has been requested to strictly follow the traffic advisory issued by the authorities to ensure smooth movement and safety.

"The Diwali Mela will be inaugurated by the Lieutenant Governor of Jammu and Kashmir, and promises an exciting lineup of cultural programs, folk dance performances, and Rangoli-making competitions by school children. Special performances by (Army Regimental Rock Association (ARRA) and other entertainment activities are also scheduled," DIG Sameer said.

Visitors can look forward to shopping stalls, food courts, awareness booths, and career counseling kiosks.

For children, special attractions such as magic shows, educational stalls, and fun zones will be set up.

As the day transitions into evening, the Mela will feature a spectacular laser show, band display, and fireworks starting at 5:00 PM. Attendees are advised to be seated at the venue by 5:00 PM sharp to enjoy the evening performances without inconvenience.

Organizers emphasized that the Diwali Mela is completely free and open to all, and serves as a gift to the people of Jammu. The initiative reflects the police department's efforts to connect with the community and bring festive joy while honoring the sacrifices of its personnel.

Authorities have urged the public to attend in large numbers and help make the Diwali Mela 2025 a grand success. Separate traffic advisories will be issued by traffic police to manage the expected rush efficiently.

Memory: Plural Heritage and Community Narratives and Kala Kendra, under the aegis of the Department of Culture, J&K Government.

The event was inaugurated by Harvinder Kour, Secretary, J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, while Anusya Jamwal, Additional Deputy Commissioner, Jammu, attended as the Special Guest. The presidium also featured Dr. Javaid Rahi, Secretary, Kala Kendra; Dr. Mrinalini Atrey and Kushagra Anand, City Co-ordinators; and representatives from INTACH Jammu, S. M. Sahani and Arvind Kotwal. In her welcome address, Dr.

Mrinalini Atrey highlighted that the exhibition presents a curated collection of rare archival photographs, showcasing heritage temples of Jammu, wooden temples of Ramban, and the intangible cultural heritage of the region.

Dr. Javaid Rahi shared that around 200 archival photographs, each with detailed descriptions, are on display across all galleries at Kala Kendra. The exhibition is open to the public for seven days, providing an opportunity to explore Jammu's rich cultural legacy.

In her presidential address, Harvinder Kour emphasized the significance of Jammu and Kashmir's architectural heritage, spanning thousands of years. She noted that many of the photographs are among the oldest surviving visuals of Jammu's historic landscape. Anusya Jamwal underscored the importance of preserving photographic records with context, as they document the evolution of architectural styles from stone to wood to modern forms.

The exhibition is supported by Jammu Heritage, Jammu Smart City, Department of Archives, Archaeology & Museums, NIUA, DRONAH Foundation, ICOMOS India, Heritopolis, and Altrim Publishers. It remains open until October 17, 2025, welcoming art lovers, researchers, and the general public.

Natrang stages 'Sainyan Bhaye Kotwal' at NZCC Patiala

A scene from the popular Hindi comedy play 'Sainyan Bhaye Kotwal'.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
PATIALA: Renowned theatre group Natrang staged the popular Hindi comedy play 'Sainyan Bhaye Kotwal' at the Kalidasa Auditorium, Virsa Vihar Kendra, Patiala, under the banner of North Zone Cultural Centre (NZCC), Ministry of Culture, Government of India.

Written by acclaimed Marathi playwright Vasant Sabnis, the play is presented in the vibrant Tamasha style and directed by Padmashree Balwant Thakur, who infused it with his signature creativity and artistic innovation.

Known for his imaginative direction, Balwant Thakur reimagined the classic with minimal props and a focus on powerful performances. The play's simplicity in staging was matched by its rich storytelling, sharp humour, and biting social satire, creating a memorable theatrical experience. His approach fostered a strong connection between actors and audience, transforming the stage into a dynamic space of engagement and laughter.

The cast included Neerja Kant Sharma as Raja, Sanjeev Gupta as Kotwal, Anil Tickoo as Hawaldar, and Pawan Verma as Sipahi, with Meenakshi Bhagat, Subash

Jamwal, and Shivam Singh in key roles. The lively chorus - featuring Kananpreet Kaur, Aryan Sharma, Kartik Kumar, and others - brought rhythm and energy to the performance.

Suraj Singh composed the music, with Rakesh Kona on dholak, and vocals by Parvinder Singh and Supriya Sharma. Suraj Ganjoo handled lighting, while costumes and properties were managed by Pawan Verma and Kartik Kumar.

The show was smoothly coordinated by Mohd. Yaseen, rounding off a successful and entertaining production that left the audience thoroughly delighted.

MD reviews progress of HADP projects in Jammu Div

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Mission Director Holistic Agriculture Development Programme (HADP)- J&K Govt Sandeep Kumar on Saturday reviewed the progress and implementation of HADP in Jammu Division at a meeting held here at Directorate of Animal Husbandry Talab Tillo.

The meeting was attended by Director Animal Husbandry Jammu, Dr. Sanjay Gupta; Director Sheep Husbandry Jammu, Dr. Syed Moin ul Haq; Joint Directors, Deputy Directors besides officers from Planning, Publicity and Technical sections of Directorate of Animal Husbandry, Jammu. The Chief Animal Husbandry Officers from across all the districts of Jammu division joined the meeting through virtual mode.

The Mission Director took a detailed assessment of the implementation status, financial progress and support being extended to farmers under different projects of the scheme. He emphasized the timely completion of all ongoing projects, speedy processing of pending applications and effective coordination with all stakeholders to ensure smooth implementation of schemes on the ground.

The Mission Director further stressed on creating mass awareness about the scope of HADP in promoting entrepreneurship in the dairy, poultry and fodder sectors.

The Officers were directed to conduct regular field level assessments to identify areas where HADP projects might work well in terms of value addition and processing of milk for which necessary infrastructure can be created.

The Mission Director also passed directions to encourage farmers to adopt balanced feeding practices for milch animals to ensure optimum nutrition, reduce feed costs thus resulting in enhanced milk production and income levels.

While explaining the importance of Milk Recording, he stressed on its crucial role in monitoring milch animals' performance and identifying high-yielding animals for future use in animal breeding for better productivity and improved profitability in dairy farming.

While reviewing the progress of projects under Fodder development component of HADP, the Mission Director asked the officers to give a major push to silage making from locally available green fodder crops like maize in all districts of Jammu division to ensure year-round availability of nutritious fodder for dairy animals. He further stressed on capacity building of farmers through demonstrations and training in this regard.
