'Athroot' Sewa Project promoted at Sewa Dhaam, Jagti

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Under the divine blessings of Jai Dev Ji(dada ji) and supervision of Ajay Takoo of the National Organisation Sewa Bharti (Regd.), an inspiring Sewa Project titled "Athroot" was successfully levelled up and promoted at Sewa Dhaam, Jagti, Nagrota.

The initiative aims to encourage, empower, and support Kashmiri migrant women by engaging them in the creation and marketing of self-crafted products. A unique and commendable feature of the project is that 100% of the profits generated will be dedicated to the welfare and upliftment of Kashmiri migrant women, embodying the true essence of selfless service (Sewa).

The programme was graced

Dr. Shreyansh Kumar Jain, State Yoga Commissioner with others at a programme.

by Dr. Shreyansh Kumar Jain, State Yoga Commissioner, as the Chief Guest. The event was presided over by Ambrish Sharma, while Nupur Saxena attended as the Special Invitee.

The event was efficiently organised under the guidance of Anjali Radhu and Dr. Swapnil Sachan, Coordinators of Athroot - Sewa Dhaam, with active support from Kiran, Kamal, Santosh, Ritu, Maanshi, Sumita, Kanta, Nanci, Anil and Sewa Bharti Karyakarta Surbhi, Nupur and Seema.

During the programme, Dr. Shreyansh Kumar Jain presented a self-composed poem narrating the inspiring journey and noble vision behind Athroot. Through his poetic expression, he urged people to extend wholehearted support to this noble initiative so that its benefits may reach the most deserving sections of society.

Dr. Swapnil Sachan elaborated on the medicinal and natural properties of the handmade soaps produced under the project, highlighting that they are crafted with pure glycerin, aloe vera, saffron, turmeric, and coconut oil-ensuring both premium quality and health benefits. Ambrish Sharma and Neena Gupta from Sewa Bharti also shared their insightful thoughts, appreciating the commendable efforts of the participating women and the spirit of Sewa that drives the entire initiative.

The event concluded with a warm vote of thanks by Anjali Radhu, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all dignitaries, organisers, and participants for their valuable support and encouragement.

The entire programme beautifully reflected the soul of Sewa Bharti's mission-transforming compassion into action and "Athroot" into a living symbol of empowerment, dignity, and hope for Kashmiri migrant women.

DLSA Jammu spreads legal awareness among elderly residents at Home for Aged & Infirm

DLSA Jammu members during legal awareness camp at Home for the Aged and Infirm.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Advocate Snigdha Shekhar, Panel Lawyer of the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Jammu, along with Sushma Parihar, Para Legal Volunteer (PLV), Ms. Monika, and Vishakha Bhat of DLSA, Jammu, visited The Home for the Aged and Infirm (Vridh Ashram), Ambphalla, Jammu, under the directions of the Secretary, DLSA, Jammu.

The purpose of the visit was to create awareness among the elderly residents about their legal rights and to inform them about the free legal aid and assistance services available through DLSA. Advocate Snigdha Shekhar interacted with the inmates in a warm and compassionate manner, explaining their rights in simple language and assuring them that DLSA would extend all possible legal assistance free of cost whenever required. During the interaction, the inmates were encouraged to share any legal concerns or grievances they might have. Although none of the residents expressed any immediate need for legal aid, they collectively raised an important issue - the non-receipt of their monthly old-age pensions due to the absence of Domicile Certificates and Ration Cards. Dr. Dinesh Gupta, Secretary of the Home, along with Sat Pal Sharma, Managing Committee Member, and Life Members Rajinder Singh and Dr. Rajinder Thappa, apprised the DLSA team that most of the inmates have been residing at the institution for many years and are no longer in a position to return to their native places. They further suggested that if Domicile Certificates and PHH Ration Cards are issued afresh in the name of the Home as their permanent address, the elderly residents would become eligible to receive their monthly old-age pensions from the Social Welfare Department, as well as benefit from the Ayushman Bharat Health Scheme.

The visit concluded with a note of appreciation from the management of the Home and an assurance from the DLSA team to take up the matter with the concerned authorities to explore suitable measures for ensuring that the deserving elderly residents receive their rightful welfare benefits and entitlements.

Bushra Patel graces RCM Silver Jubilee "Rupantaran Yatra" celebration at Nampally

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

HYDERABAD: RCM celebrated its Silver Jubilee with the grand "Rupantaran Yatra", which made a remarkable stop at the Exhibition Grounds, Nampally, Hyderabad. The event was graced by Bushra Patel, President of the India Arab Friendship Foundation (IAFF) and Chief Advisory of the Nations Development Association (NDA), as the Chief Guest. The celebration, which drew thousands of participants, featured diverse activities focused on health, fashion, food, and self-reliance, symbolizing RCM's commitment to empowering individuals and communities. The Rupantaran Yatra is a 100-day, 17,000-kilometer nationwide journey commemorating 25 successful years of RCM. Its central theme-Seva, Swasthya, and Sanskaar (Service, Health, and Culture)-reflects the company's vision of building a self-reliant India through social responsibility, health awareness, and cultural values. Speaking at the event, Bushra Patel lauded RCM's contribution to promoting entrepreneurship and self-employment opportunities, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in strengthening India's economic and social fabric.
