Model Academy School faculty and students posing with dignitaries at Annual Sports Day celebration.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Model Academy School organised its Annual Sports Day with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervour on the theme "Ignited Minds: Run for Dreams." The event was dedicated to Dr.A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, the Missile Man of India, to commemorate his birth anniversary and to inspire students to dream big and pursue excellence with determination.

The occasion was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr.Renu Gupta, Chairperson, MIER Group of Institutions, as the Chief Guest, accompanied by Dr. Adit Gupta Director, Rupa Gupta, Joint Director, MIER, Pramod Kumar Srivastava, J.K. Dhiman, the Principal, Vice Principal, Academic Managers, teachers, and students.

The programme commenced with the Guard of Honour by the Scouts and Guides, followed by an impressive March Past by the NCC cadets, coordinated by Madhubala, Naval Officer. The Lighting of the Torch and the Declaration of the Sports Meet Open by the Chief Guest marked the formal beginning of the event.

The day unfolded with a series of wing-wise sports events, reflecting the vibrant energy and sportsmanship of the students.

The events began with the Inclusive School, where children showcased their determination and enthusiasm in races such as the Balloon Race, Stars of Tomorrow, and Earth Care Race. Their active participation filled the arena with cheer and encouragement. The Scouts and Guides assisted the children, ensuring an inclusive and supportive experience for all participants.

Next in line were the events of Humming Buds - the Preschool Wing, where the little ones spread joy through the Planet Race, Missile Race, and Dream Collectors Race. Their colourful outfits and cheerful energy added charm and delight to the morning.

The Primary Wing

(Classes 1-5) followed with a variety of competitive and engaging events including the Seeds of Tomorrow Race, Knowledge Torch Race, Scientist Race, Hurdle Race, and Satellite Relay Race. The young athletes demonstrated discipline, teamwork, and a strong will to succeed, truly embodying Dr. Kalam's vision of "Ignited Minds" striving to achieve their dreams.

A special dance performance on the day's theme enthralled the audience, symbolizing energy, perseverance, and the pursuit of dreams. The performance was choreographed and coordinated by Ms. Mohini, Dance Instructor.

The programme concluded with the Sports Pledge, reaffirming the values of fair play and perseverance, followed by the Medal Distribution Ceremony, where winners were honoured by the dignitaries. The Vice Head Girl proposed a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the management, guests, teachers, and students for making the event a grand success.

The entire programme was meticulously coordinated by Swati Sharma, Convener CCA, along with the Sports Department - Nisha Sharma, Imran, and Sahil, in collaboration with the Student Council. The event was compered by the Sports Captain and Vice-Captain, who kept the proceedings engaging and well-paced.

The Annual Sports Day, dedicated to the visionary Dr.A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, truly embodied the spirit of "Ignited Minds: Run for Dreams," inspiring every child to believe that with effort, passion, and perseverance, dreams can indeed take flight.

Fire Safety Advisory

Issued by the Assistant Director Fire & Emergency Services, Command Kishtwar

With the advent of winter, the use of heating appliances and traditional heating systems increases considerably across the Union Territory. In view of the heightened fire risk during this period, the general public is hereby advised to adopt the following precautionary measures to prevent fire incidents and ensure safety of life and property.

- Building and Electrical Safety
 - All fire preventive and protective recommendations issued by the Department during inspections and audits shall be strictly implemented.
 - Avoid the use of defective substandard, or high-wattage electrical appliances, such as heaters and blanket particularly in old buildings where wiring systems may be worn out.
 - Only ISI-certified electrical equipment and appliances shall be used.
 - Ensure the use of good quality fuses, Miniature Circuit Breakers (MCB) and Earth Leakage Circuit Breakers (ELCB) of appropriate rating.
 - Prevent overloading of electrical circuits; use one socket for one appliance only.
 - Replace all damaged plugs, switches, and cables without delay.
 - Keep electrical wires away from wet, hot, or flammable surfaces and never conceal them under carpets or mats.
 - Switch off appliances after use and disconnect the main supply before leaving the premises for extended periods.
- Heating and LPG Safety
 - Ensure adequate ventilation when operating gas or LPG heaters
 - Remove LPG cylinders from living rooms before going to sleep.
 - Avoid simultaneous use of multiple electrical heating devices such as electric blankets and water bottles.
- General Fire Precautions
 - Handle kangris (traditional fire pots) and candles with utmost care, place them only on non-flammable and stable surfaces.
 - Store and handle charcoal and other combustible materials safely and away from heat sources.
 - Ensure proper maintenance and ventilation of inverter batteries and electrical installations.
 - Keep escape routes clear and ensure fire extinguishers, if available, are in working condition

In the event of a fire, immediately contact the nearest Fire & Emergency Services Control Room Kishtwar by Dialing 101, 01995-259331

Public Message

Fire safety is a collective responsibility. The Department urges all citizens to remain vigilant and adopt fire-safe practices in homes, workplaces, and public buildings, particularly during the winter season, as the topography of District Kishtwar is mountainous, characterized by rugged terrain with high peaks and residents are residing at widely spread area of Kishtwar.

"Fire Safety first, flames last"

Fire & Emergency Services, Command Kishtwar.
