AJKPC celebrates Dussehra, Birth Anniversaries of Gandhi, Shastri

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: On the occasion of Vijayadashami, which also marks the birthdays of Mahatma Gandhi and former Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, Anil Sharma, President of the All Jammu and Kashmir Panchayat Conference (AJKPC), paid tributes to the leaders at the AJKPC headquarters in Jammu. Several local media representatives attended the programme.

Sharma remembered Gandhi for his teachings of honesty and non-violence, and Shastri for inspiring the nation with the slogan "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan." He also mentioned Lord Ram, who went to the forest but kept his promises, showing dedication and truthfulness. He said celebrating all three together reminds everyone of honesty, hard work, and serving society.

A large number of youth from Nagrota Assembly constituency, along with other local people, took part in the programme. Sharma encouraged young people to take the lead in working for villages, farmers, students, and overall development. "The future of the country depends on young people who work sincerely and help society," he said.

About the upcoming Nagrota assembly elections, Sharma said he will contest without any doubt. He added that AJKPC has always worked for the nation and youth, and despite threats, its members never compromised on national interest.

When asked about recent interviews of CM Omar Abdullah on political matters, Sharma avoided a direct answer, saying it is too early to judge the government after just 12 months.

He said that action matters more than words and asked everyone to focus on solving local problems and improving services. The programme ended with a call for people to work together for real development in Jammu and Kashmir.

BJP Minority Morcha pays tribute to Mahatma Gandhi, Lal Bahadur Shastri

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, and former Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, the BJP Minority Morcha J&K team today paid rich tributes to the two great leaders for their invaluable contribution to the nation.

A special tribute program was organized under the leadership of Narinder Jain, State Vice President of BJP Minority Morcha J&K.

Speaking on the occasion, Jain said, "Mahatma Gandhi's principles of non-violence, truth, and peace continue to guide the nation even today. He gave the world a new philosophy of freedom through non-violence, which remains relevant in every era. Alongside him, Lal Bahadur Shastri Ji taught us the value of simplicity, integrity, and the powerful slogan of 'Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan,' which still inspires millions of Indians."

Jain further emphasized that remembering such leaders is not just a formality but a way to reaffirm commitment to their ideals. "Their vision of a strong, self-reliant, and united India must be our guiding force," he added.

The program was attended by prominent members of the Minority Morcha, including Adv. Jasmeet Kour Pandey, Bhupinder Singh, Dr. Surjeet Singh, Prithpal Singh, Joginder Singh Raju, and others.

The participants recalled the sacrifices and contributions of Gandhi Ji and Shastri Ji, stressing that their lives were true examples of service to the nation.

The gathering concluded with a pledge to follow the path shown by these great leaders and to work tirelessly for unity, peace, and progress of the country.

U.S. Polo Assn expands footprint with new store in Jammu

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: U.S. Polo Assn., India's leading casualwear brand and the official brand of the United States Polo Association (USPA), has launched its first-ever store in Jammu at Apsara Road, one of the city's busiest shopping hubs.

The opening marks Jammu's debut new-gen retail identity store, designed to deliver a premium and contemporary shopping experience aligned with the brand's latest global store format.

Spread across 1,809 sq. ft. on two levels, the store is dedicated exclusively to Menswear and reflects the brand's sporty yet classic heritage.

A striking polo wall and modern interiors add to its visual appeal. Consumers can explore a wide range of collections tailored for style-conscious individuals who value authenticity, comfort, and global trends.

Coinciding with the season, the Jammu outlet features the Autumn/Winter 2025

Menswear collection, including Classic Americana styles, varsity-inspired looks, relaxed fits, and signature denim. Each collection highlights the brand's blend of timeless fashion with modern versatility.

Speaking on the launch, Amitabh Suri, Chief Executive Officer, U.S. Polo Assn. India, said, "We are excited to bring our first new store to Jammu, a market that holds immense potential for the brand. Located on Apsara Road, this store highlights our refreshed retail concept through its striking façade, modern interiors, and the latest Autumn/Winter collection. With this launch, we continue to expand our footprint and deliver to consumers in Jammu an enhanced way to experience the classic, sporty, and global essence of U.S. Polo Assn."

The store is located at No. 283B, Ground & Mezzanine Floor, Apsara Road, Gole Market, Gandhi Nagar, Jammu.

Bhartiya Yog Sansthan celebrates Yog Divas

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Bhartiya Yog Sansthan (BYS), headquartered in Rohini, Delhi, observes 2nd October every year as Yog Divas, one of its six major annual events. With over 4,000 branches in India and abroad, the organization promotes holistic well-being through yoga.

The 59th Yog Divas was celebrated by BYSS Jammu on Thursday in the serene lawns of its Ashram at Gole Gujral, with participation from over 600 yoga enthusiasts.

Although Dr. Devansh Yadav, Commissioner, Jammu Municipality, was invited as the Chief Guest, he could not attend due to prior engagements. The event commenced on time with lamp lighting and Saraswati Vandana, followed by a group yoga and Pranayama session led by experienced Yog Sadhaks.

Jia Lal Sharma, Secretary

BYS Jammu, delivered a talk on Pranayama, explaining its ancient roots and its benefits in reducing stress, enhancing respiratory health, boosting immunity, and improving focus.

Satya Pal, President, BYSS J&K, introduced the organization's work, highlighting that over 120 yoga centres in and around Jammu conduct free yoga classes. He emphasized the positive impact of yoga on physical and mental well-being, aligning with the vision of the Fit India Movement launched by Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Anil Sharma, General Secretary (Organisation), presented the vote of thanks, appreciating all participants and organizers. The programme was conducted smoothly and efficiently by Col. V.S. Jamwal (Retd), who anchored the event with a well-maintained schedule.
