SEC for ensuring timely delivery of election material, deployment of poll staff in far flung areas of UT

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: To ensure timely delivery of election related material and deployment of poll personnel in far flung and inaccessible areas of the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir, State Election Commissioner (SEC), K.K. Sharma, on Monday reviewed the arrangements including air lifting of poll personnel and election material in these areas with Divisional Commissioner, Jammu, Sanjeev Verma.

The SEC directed the concerned to work out a fool proof mechanism for planned airlifting of men and materials to inaccessible areas which are cut off due to extreme weather conditions so that there is no obstruction in the election process. He said that this would ensure maximum participation of people of these areas in the upcoming polls. The SEC asked the Divisional Commissioner, for taking up the important matters with the concerned authorities in the Union Government as well so that early delivery of election material and other related things is ensured. He also called for proper coordination among various departments to ensure clearance of roads, snow, etc. "The elections are of prime importance as they will go a long way in ensuring development at the grass root level and we should ensure that no section or area is left out of the electoral processes and denied their democratic right", he added. The meeting was also attended by senior officers of Election department.

Team Jammu releases 'Kaliveer Chalisa'

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Chairman, Team Jammu, Zorawar Singh Jamwal, here on Monday, formally launched first ever Album 'Kaliveer Chalisa' sung by son of the soil, Naresh NB.

Roshan Bral, President Dogri Bhasha Academy, Jammu who was Guest of Honour, Sugam Bral, Chairman Jammu Diary was Special Guest and Special Guests included Surinder Manhas, M L Bagge, Dr. Susheel, Basant Bayogi, Sahil Mahajan, K.K Malhotra and Ramesh Jogi. Kaliveer Chalisa album has been composed and sung by Naresh NB while lyrics by Pyaasa Anjum, videography was done by Ray Entertainment and presented by Apna Folk Studio.

Congratulating Naresh NB for exhibiting finest talent in the shape of singer and highlighting the path shown by Dogra deities, Chairman, Chairman, Team Jammu, Zorawar Singh Jamwal and others launching 'Kaliveer Chalisa'.

Team Jammu, Zorawar Singh Jamwal said that the success of Naresh NB in such a short time period clearly conveys that there is no dearth of young talent in Jammu region. Numerous boys and girls from J&K have scaled new heights in various Tele-serials as well as in Bollywood but unfortunately their talent has not been recognized here in the state.

"The government must formulate a policy for nurturing young talent so that budding artists can excel in their respective fields besides bringing fame and laurels to the state," highlighted Zorawar Jamwal and added that, "Naresh NB has set example for the youth of Jammu region how to become self-dependent besides scaling new heights in the field of music and songs and promoting Dogra deities, folk and culture."

On the occasion, young singer, Naresh NB informed the gathering that it was not an easy thing for him to bring out Kaliveer Chalisa as it was only due to support of my family and friends besides day and night hard work that finally made my dream come true. He also assured that in near future he would start working on the theme of Team Jammu "Say no to Drugs" and also motivating youth of Jammu Province in nation building.
