joined the security officials in their meeting with the prime minister, officials said.

It is learnt that Modi was apprised about the discussions at the 'Delhi Regional Security Dialogue on Afghanistan' by the security officials.

India hosted the dialogue to firm up a common approach for practical cooperation in confronting increasing threats of terrorism, radicalisation and drug trafficking following the Taliban's takeover of Kabul.

The central Asian countries that attended the dialogue are Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan.

In the dialogue, the security czars flagged concerns over the possible rise of terrorist activities from the Taliban-controlled Afghanistan and called for a collective approach to deal with the challenge.

In his opening remarks at the India-hosted Delhi Regional Security Dialogue on Afghanistan, Deval said the recent developments in that country have important implications not only for Afghan people but also for the region.

I am not leaving Kashmir, says KP bizman whose salesman was shot dead by terrorists

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: Kashmiri Pandit businessman Sandeep Mawa, whose salesman was killed here in a terror attack believed to be aimed at him, on Wednesday, said he will not leave Kashmir and remain here despite opposition from his family.

Mawa also claimed that he escaped the attack as he left his shop early due to a prior intelligence input, but his salesman Mohammad Ibrahim Khan was shot dead near his shop in Bohri Kadal area of the city on Monday.

He said he was not deterred and will continue to stay in Kashmir Valley.

"No, I am not leaving Kashmir. There is no question (of leaving the valley)," Mawa said when asked if he was thinking of leaving Kashmir in the wake of Monday's attack and a series of such attacks against the members of the minority communities recently.

Mawa, who is related to Kashmiri Pandit chemist M

L Bindroo who was shot dead near his shop last month, said he believes Monday's attack was a case of mistaken identity and a part of the series of attacks on the minority community members.

"What I think is it is (part of) attack on minority (community members)," he said, adding the attackers mistook his salesman for him and shot Khan who worked for the family for about 14 years from a close range when he went inside Mawa's car.

Mawa whose family returned to Kashmir in 2018 said he will not leave again and is determined to stay in Kashmir despite opposition to the idea from his family.

I am staying here and I am not going to run away, he added.

He said the people of Kashmir -- Muslims, Hindus, Christians and Sikhs -- have to collectively fight it.

We cannot run away and leave this field open for them, Mawa said.

The Kashmiri Pandit businessman said he was alerted by the police in the afternoon on Monday about a possible attack on his life, hours before the terrorists shot dead his Kashmiri Muslim salesman.

I was told by the police that there was an input (about a possible attack on his life). The police advised me to leave the shop and so, I left around 3:15 pm, Mawa said.

He had filed a petition before the high court seeking constitution of a Special Investigation Team into the Shopian fake encounter in which three labourers from Rajouri were killed last year.

Mawa also demanded the constitution of the State Human Rights Commission in the UT of JK.

The businessman said he left his car near the shop and left in some other vehicle in a hurry.

Around 8 pm, when my brother (Khan) was trying to get into my car, he was shot at, he added.

Union Cabinet restores MPLAD Scheme after COVID-induced suspension

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The Union Cabinet on Wednesday decided to restore the Member of Parliament Local Area Development Scheme (MPLADS) and an MP will get Rs 2 crore for development activities for the remainder of 2021-22 and annually Rs 5 crore thereafter.

The MPLAD Scheme was suspended temporarily in April 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic and its funds went into the Consolidated Fund of India.

Announcing the decision at a press conference, Information and Broadcasting Minister Anurag Thakur said the Union Cabinet chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi decided to restore the scheme for the remaining part of financial year 2021-22. The scheme will continue till 2025-26.

While Rs 2 crore to each MP will be released in one instalment for the remaining period of 2021-22, from 2022-23 to 2025-26 funds will be released under the scheme at the rate of Rs 5 crore per annum to them in two instalments of Rs 2.5 crore each, he said.

"During COVID-19, a decision had been taken by the cabinet that for two years, 2020-21 to 2021-22, MPLAD Scheme money will be used in the fight against the pandemic. And all parliamentarians had also enthusiastically given their consent to contribute in the fight against Covid. "I am glad to share with you that in view of the improvement in economic scenario, the way economic recovery has taken place and we have seen growth in various sectors as well, a decision has been taken to restore MPLAD Scheme for the remainder period of the fiscal 2021-22," Thakur told reporters at a cabinet briefing. He said instalments of Rs 5 crore each will be given to parliamentarians for the development of their respective constituencies for the remaining three years - 2022-23 to 2025-26.

In April last year, the government had suspended MPLADS for two years - 2020-21 and 2021-22, and said that the funds totalling about Rs 7,900 crore would be used for improving health infrastructure and managing health services in fighting the COVID-19 pandemic in the country. The government had also reduced the salaries of MPs by 30 per cent in April last. Under the MPLAD scheme, all the MPs can recommend development programmes involving expenditure of Rs 5 crore every year in their constituencies.

The decision had evoked sharp reactions from opposition parties which had criticised the government and had sought its restoration.

While the Congress said the decision would undermine the role of an MP and had sought its review, the left parties and the Trinamool Congress had also slammed the government for the decision. The TMC had termed the step "whimsical" and "undemocratic", while the Shiv Sena said it was taken unilaterally and without consulting anyone.
