Youth is future, hope of nation: DGP Dilbag Singh

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: "Our youth is our future and hope of nation and they have to act as responsible and careful citizens," said Director General of Police (DGP) J&K Dilbag Singh, here on Saturday.

Dilbag Singh, as Chief Guest, was speaking in the programme after inaugurating of Jammu Bike Fest organised by Big FM and associate partners at Bahu Plaza.

The Bike Fest presented by Geetanjali Salon, powered by Monalisa Stores Private Limited, co powered by Halmark.

Complementing the organizers for organizing the bike fest in Jammu, the DGP said that speed thrills youth but they should be careful as life is very precious.

He advised youth to take care of themselves and specially their parents and use helmets while driving bikes. He said that speed is enjoyable till it is under control.

The event is first off its kind in Jammu and Kashmir where leading brands like Benelli, Indian, Kawasaki TVS, KTM, Royal Organisers welcoming DGP J&K, Dilbag Singh by presenting a bouquet.

Enfield, Aprilia, Honda, Suzuki, TNR from world, exhibited their trending and latest bikes.

The event started with gigantic bike rally participated by more than 150 bikers from various bike groups.

The event is co sponsored by 92.7 Big FM as their FM partner, JK media as media partner, Sky view as gifting partner and three sixty as event partner.

The event has food stalls and tattoo artists who are showcasing the talent of Jammu.

Event organisers Soham Amla and Vivek Mahajan thanked the dignitaries and welcomed biking enthusiasts and all the people of Jammu to visit and encourage this first ever biking event in Jammu.

On the sidelines of the programme, the DGP while speaking to the media persons said that drug menace is creating havoc in Jammu and Kashmir.

"Pakistan in its continuous attempts of disturbing peace and harmony here is using drugs as a source to lure the youth in anti national activities and ruin their lives," he said adding that despite huge consignments being seized drugs remain a threat and challenge.

He appealed to the people especially parents to come forward and support Police in combating the drug menace. He advised the youth to utilize their energy in the positive direction. On terrorism, the DGP said that police and security forces are working hard to finish the terrorism from Jammu and Kashmir so that people live a peaceful life.

Regarding COVID, he said that the threat is not over yet and people should remain careful and act with responsibility, following all the COVID protocols and not disobey government directives on social gathering and social distancing.

Impressive show by Param FC against RBI

Football teams posing for a photograph with officials.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Param Football Club went down fighting to Mumbai based RBI central team in a disciplined and mature performance by the young boys at their last league match of the 49th All India Hot Weather Football Tournament at Mandi in Himachal Pradesh. As per the reports reaching here, Param FC conceded the first goal against the run of play through a defensive lapse at the center circle in the first half. Thereafter, Param FC reorganised themselves in defense and tried to put up a brave attacking display, hence creating plenty of scoring opportunities. But experienced and matured defenders of RBI resisted all attacks and prevented Param FC from equalizing.

Second half started with a change of strategy wherein Param FC tried to keep more possession of the ball while keeping RBI away from their goal and trying to find an equalizer till 60th minute, after which RBI, on a fast counter attack, went past Param FC custodian through an awkward deflection of own defender, while he was trying to make an easy attempt to save an incoming ball.

This did not stop the young boys from trying to push for goals in dying minutes of the match. But RBI kept their nerves and prevented any misadventure till the match ended 2-0 in favour of RBI, Mumbai. It was a wonderful experience playing against a team with some international and national players. Boys are bound to learn from this exposure trip and will become even better in times to come, said Satnam Singh, Team Manager Coach Arun Pal Singh also shared his pleasure and satisfaction on a good performance by the young boys on their first ever exposure tour against some of the much experienced teams. Param FC will end the tour with a friendly match tomorrow morning against an upcoming and well known local club of Mandi, Triumph FC.
