

Kabra reviews winter preparedness across J&K

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: Principal Secretary Jal Shakti, Shaleen Kabra on Friday chaired a meeting here to review the winter preparedness. Principal Secretary directed the concerned officers to adopt a proactive approach to address the needs and requirements of the people; especially those living in far-flung and snow-bound areas and directed them to ensure that there is no scarcity of drinking water during the winters and take proper steps forehand in this regard so that all the issues are ironed out. He said that immediate measures have also to be taken where pipes are exposed and bursting occurs during freezing temperatures. Principal Secretary further directed the officers to ensure power supply is available at all the required places and make alternate power supply in case of disruptions and fuel stocking is done well in advance.
