Amidst chants of Modi-Modi, Indian diaspora all praise for PM

Bali: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday addressed an Indian diaspora outreach event in Bali, which is hosting G-20 summit. Amid Modi-Modi chants from the people, the Prime Minister explained the long history of interaction between the people of India and Indonesia since ancient times. Later, Young Bites Editor-In-Chief Vijay Gupta talked to the people who attended the meet. They were quite happy to see Prime Minister Narendra Modi so close and interacting with those present in the event.

"It was quite a unique experience to hear Prime Minister Modi. We performed a cultural event during the programme and later the PM met with all the performers. His speech was very inspiring", said Pumpy Pal originally from West Bengal but now living in Indonesia.

Similarly Nishi Gupta along with a group of 35 from Mumbai had specially flown from India to attend Modi's event. "We are very blessed to meet the Prime Minister, Modiji has done very good work for the country and several measures have been taken for the development of the country. He has a superb personality and we are blessed to attend his rally".

Tahir Ali, a naturalized citizen of Indonesia but has roots in India, had all praise for the Prime Minister. "Thankful to Modi ji that he came to Bali. It will strengthen the relationship between India and Indonesia. There is a need for more people to people interactions".

Another group of elderly ladies said they are proud to attend Modi's programme. "We feel proud about what India has achieved under the able leadership of Narendra Modi.
