■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: As part of 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav', Commissioner State Taxes Department, Dr. Rashmi Singh, on Friday held a GST interactive session for traders, manufacturers and hoteliers of South Kashmir.

Dr. Rashmi Singh, responded to various issues raised by the participants and assured that all genuine issues will be taken care of. She directed the STOs of Anantnag, Kulgam, Pulwama and Shopian districts to have a registration drive to ensure that those falling in the threshold limit of GST Act get registered and do not evade taxes. This will also ensure a level playing field for all, she added. Commissioner exhorted upon the concerned to focus on revenue augmenting measures and ensure proper implementation of all provisions of the GST Act. Deputy Commissioner State Taxes Recovery, Shakeel Maqbool flagged the issues of utilisation of ineligible input tax credit for setting off tax liability and declaration of IGST liabilities by the hotels and travel agents in violation of place of supply rules which leads to loss of revenue to the government of Jammu and Kashmir. He also sensitised the participants about recent GST related changes and the benefits accruing from the same.

Deputy Commissioner Central, Dr. Parvez Raina, to educate the participants about the benefits and issues related to various tax reimbursement schemes. The session witnessed active participation from Hotelier Association Pahalgam, Traders Federations South Kashmir; Taxpayers of South Kashmir; Contractors, Manufacturers Association of South Kashmir and other stakeholders who raised questions before the senior officers. President Pahalgam Hotelier Association, Javeed Burza, suggested that existing hotels should also get benefit under incentives being given to new ones which have been declared as industry meant for boosting their sector further.

Gurpriya Kour, a young entrepreneur from Punjabi Rasoi, said, "We really appreciate such information exchange and this will prevent us from falling prey to misinformation." Ayaz Ahmad Munshi, a businessman from plywood industry, raised concerns about unregistered dealers in the area skipping taxation process and the brunt being born by registered dealers due to such malpractices.

Shahnawaz Shah, Deputy Commissioner, State Taxes (Enforcement), South Kashmir; Waseem Raja, Assistant Commissioner State Taxes (Technical); Wajahat Mehmood, Programmer and other officers of the State Taxes Department responded to queries raised by the participants including matters related to GST reimbursement, invoicing, supplies received from unregistered dealers etc.

Later, a session with State Tax officers of Anantnag, Kulgam, Shopian and Pulwama districts was conducted. The circles, reviewed, presented their target achievements till date. On the occasion, the first newsletter of the department was also released.

Rezang La heroes remembered on 60th Anniversary of Battle

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

LEH: On the occasion of the 60th Anniversary of the Battle of Rezang La, Giridhar Aramane, Defence Secretary, Lieutenant General A Sengupta, General Officer Commanding Fire and Fury Corps, General Officer Commanding Uniform Force Maj Gen V Hariharan, and Naresh Shukla, DIG (Operations), ITBP along with other distinguished guests of Fire & Fury Corps, paid their tributes to the 114 Bravehearts of the Chushul Brigade at the Rezang La Memorial on Friday.

A Special Cover was also released on the occasion by the Chief Guest.

The Battle of Rezang La is etched in the annals of military history as one of the greatest last stands of all times comparable only to a few other battles the world over. The Battle stands out for sheer valour, grit and dogged determination of C Company of 13 KUMAON that fought to the last man in 1962 war against China, defending Rezang La in Eastern Ladakh, under the leadership of Maj Shaitan Singh.

A dignitary speaking during the programme.

Battle of Rezang La, an epic battle of all times, has immense inspirational value for the entire nation. In November 1962, 13 KUMAON was deployed at Magar Hill and Rezang La in Chushul Sector, Eastern Ladakh, as part of 114 Infantry Brigade. The early hours of 18 November 1962 witnessed a fierce battle at Rezang La. Against all odds and grossly out-numbered, the valiant soldiers of 'C' Company, 13 KUMAON, repulsed seven attacks by the Chinese, launched in waves.

Despite heavy artillery shelling and fierce Chinese assaults, Maj Shaitan Singh and his 113 brave hearts delivered the heaviest blow to the Chinese.

The brave soldiers of 13 KUMAON were honoured with one Param Vir Chakra, Eight Veer Chakras, one Ati Vishisht Seva Medal, four Sena Medals and one Mention-in-Despatches. Embazoned on Battalion's colours, these names will forever remind the future generations of the brave men who laid down their lives fighting for our country on 18 November 1962.

Seminar on 'Naturopathy; an integrative medicine' inaugurated

Secretary H&ME, Bhupinder Kumar visiting a stall.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Directorate of AYUSH on Friday celebrated 5th National Naturopathy Day at Government Ayurvedic Hospital, Jammu.

The hospital organized a one day seminar with "Naturopathy an integrative medicine" as events' theme.

Secretary, Health and Medical Education (H&ME), Bhupinder Kumar, was the chief guest while Additional Commissioner State Taxes, Ankita Kar, was the guest of honour on the occasion.

In his address to Ayush fraternity, Secretary urged upon Ayush fraternity to become an enthusiastic advocate of Ayush systems of health care so that a mass movement of Ayush health services can be initiated across the UT. He also emphasized that these wellness interventions being drugless must be integrated with conventional care as NCDs like Diabetes, Cancer, Metabolic Disorders which are emerging as global challenges. Secretary also inaugurated Nature Cure exhibition organized by the Government Ayurvedic Hospital in presence of Ankita Kar and Director Ayush J&K. He visited the stalls displaying various therapeutic modalities of Naturopathy like dietherapy, magneto therapy, heliotherapy, mud therapy, hydrotherapy, Accupressure, Acupuncture, IEC and Bee Material on Naturopathy.

Secretary unveiled official logo of Directorate of Ayush, J&K, the new iconic identity of the department. He also felicitated 10 best Ayush health and wellness centers.

Later, Secretary also visited Government Ayurvedic Hospital and inspected working of different wards there. Director AYUSH J&K, Dr. Mohan Singh, briefed the Secretary about various achievements of the Directorate in promotion and propagation of Ayush system of healthcare for holistic care and total health in the community. He also highlighted the history of naturopathy and potentials of Naturopathy in the UT of J&K.

Dr. Singh also presented a video documentary "Ayush Utkarsh- Growth Story of Ayush in J&K" depicting various components of Ayush service delivery.

Dr. Arun Gupta, Medical Officer Ayush, presented the key note address on Naturopathy and its relevance in today's health scenario.

Deputation of teachers in offices affecting students' performance

■ SHAKEELA ANDRABI

SRINAGAR: A teacher is appointed for teaching purpose, but it is really surprising that till date hundreds of teachers prefer working in offices like clerks in place of rendering their duties in schools. Government gives handsome salary to teachers, but with help of higher authorities hundreds of teachers have managed their attachment in various offices in major cities like Jammu and Srinagar, where their own wards are enrolled. At present, thousands of Government Primary Schools across Jammu & Kashmir are functioning with a single teacher or lack of teaching staff, which is badly affecting performance of schools.

Recently in a fresh official communication, the Directorate of School Education Kashmir (DSEK) has once again asked Chief Education Officers (CEOs) and Zonal Education Officers (ZEOs) to relieve all the teachers from their respective offices noting that various teachers have been retained in offices in violation of earlier issued Government orders. "There are clear cut orders from the administrative department not to utilise the services of teaching personnel in the offices to man the clerical job but surprisingly you have still retained a number of teachers in the offices in violation of government orders," reads an official communiqué addressed to all CEOs of Kashmir division. The CEOs and ZEOs have been 'once again' asked to take appropriate action in the matter and 'report compliance to the Directorate forth with.'

Notably, STATE TIMES has carried a series of stories on unnecessary attachment of teachers in offices for years together due to which
