Court rejects bail plea of DySP in graft case

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Special Judge Anti-Corruption Jammu Tahir Khurshid Raina while rejecting bail application of Virender Singh, Dy SP Crime Branch, J&K Police who was arrested by ACB, observed that the corruption in public institutions shakes the people's confidence and crumbles the social fabric of the society. Special Judge Anti-Corruption Jammu Tahir Khurshid Raina after hearing APP Irshad Sheikh for ACB whereas Adv Ashwani Thakur for the applicant, on thoughtful consideration of the CD file, found the accusations against the accused, as projected in the status report, quite glaring and based on substantial material on record. Court further said that the investigation is going on and the alleged bribe amount taken by the accused is still unrecovered from accused on account of his stubborn attitude in his interrogation by the ACB. While rejecting bail application of DySP Crime Branch who was caught by the ACB in bribe of Rs 50,000, Special Judge Anticorruption Jammu Tahir Khurshid Raina observed that it is really shocking and unfortunate that a senior police officer who is posted in a prestigious investigating wing of the police has prima facie resorted to corruption while investigating a case assigned to him as an investigator. Such a detestable act on the part of said officer can malign the image of the institution he belongs to in the eyes of general public and can also lessen the confidence of the people in the working of the said institution. This is how the credibility of the public institutions withers away in the society, leading to chaos and confusion among the people, the Court observed. Special Judge Anti-corruption Jammu Tahir Khurshid Raina further said that it is trite that while deciding bail application, the paramount factors for the court to consider are like - the gravity of the offence, level of accusations against the accused, punishment prescribed for the alleged offence, stage of the investigation, tendency and potential of the accused to flee from the investigation/ trial and to hamper and tamper with the ongoing investigation etc. Court observed that the facts and circumstances of the case as presented in the foregoing paras, when taken in context of the factors to be considered for grant of bail as aforementioned, this court is not inclined to accept the prayer of the applicant for grant of bail at this stage, which is accordingly rejected.

Deputy Mayor highlights steps to mitigate sufferings of Jammu people

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Deputy Mayor, Jammu Municipal Corporation (JMC) Baldev Singh Billawaria highlighted various prevailing issues at length and steps taken for immediate redressal of the same.
