

2000 students attend seminar on IAS/KAS and Career Counselling

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Tribal Research Institute in collaboration with Chanakya IAS Academy has organised a Free seminar on IAS/KAS and career counselling with the IAS/IPS officers of Jammu and Kashmir.

Dr Shahid Iqbal Choudhary Secretary, Tribal Affairs Department & Chief Executive Officer, Mission Youth along with AK Mishra (Chairman, Chanakya IAS Academy & Motivational speaker), Anjeet Singh (IPS-2021), Dr Abdul Khabir (KAS-Deputy Director, Tribal Affairs) Gaurav Gupta (KAS-OSD, Mission youth) delivered lectures and motivated aspirants and guided them how to prepare for IAS/KAS and other competitive exams. It was a much needed motivational lecture.

The architect of this event was Dr Abdul Khabir (Deputy Director, Chanakya IAS Academy representatives talking to reporters.

Tribal affairs Department and Owais Ali Bhat, (Director, Chanakya IAS Academy, Jammu)

The seminar was held at Zorawar Singh Auditorium, Jammu University. The motivation for thousands of Civil Services aspirants, Dr Shahid Iqbal Choudhary, while addressing the candidates on Video Conference, shared his rich experiences and also shed light on important tips about how one should approach the exam and the important factors needed to prepare well for Indian Administrative Service and Kashmir Administrative Service.

The seminar began with his success story followed by a deeper insight into the Civil Services Exam and the duties that must be followed during the job.

The participants were encouraged to actively participate and bring forward their queries which were further answered by Dr Shahid and AK Mishra and other speakers.

According to AK Mishra, Head of Chanakya IAS

Academy, the Academy has always endeavoured to provide quality guidance and education to Civil Services aspirants, state and create able administrators for the nation. Dr Shahid said that the aim of this seminar was to address all the queries and doubts of the participants regarding how to prepare for IAS/KAS, interview guidance, answer writing and also shed light on syllabus & effective preparation strategy for all the three stages of exam, or career counselling in general he added.

When Asked Dr Shahid Iqbal Choudhary he said that Tribal affairs and Mission youth department will keep inviting top civil servants, toppers of current batch from IAS/IPS/ KAS, top motivational speakers of the nation for such free seminars to encourage more and more students to appear for elite services from J&K.

According to AK Mishra, Head of Chanakya IAS

3-day Kala Utsav 2022-23 begins at Teachers' Bhawan

Director SEJ, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma lighting a lamp.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Directorate of School Education Jammu (DSEJ) on Monday inaugurated a three-day long Divisional Level Kala Utsav 2022-23, here at Teachers' Bhawan.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

He said that one needs to think out of the box to succeed in life as in the present day world many career options have come up in the field of fine arts for the students to choose which are very rewarding. The Directorate is taking every possible step to help the students prepare and equip themselves for such avenues, he said.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.

Surjit Singh, Cultural and Education Cell, DSEJ presented the formal welcome address on the occasion with Ashutosh Sharma and Supriya Sharma coordinating the event.

The event is being organized by the Cultural and Education Cell of the Directorate of School Education, Jammu, in which around 200 students from the 10 districts will display their talent in 10 different categories. These participants are the winners of district level competitions held earlier for boys and girls.

Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, the Chief Guest, said that Kala Utsav, which is a regular feature of the academic calendar, aims to promote finer arts in education and plays a major role in creating awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and its vibrant diversity.

"Such events and activities provide the students a platform to showcase and exhibit their talents in various fields" he added.

On the first day of the Kala Utsav, 19 students competed in the Dance (Folk) category and 16 students participated in Dance (classical) category, while 18 students competed in the Acting (Solo) category.

Yogeshwar Singh and Romesh Parwana were the judges for the dance competition, while Dr. Sudhir Mahajan and Dr Sanjeev Gupta were the judges for the acting category.