among the inmates, thereby bringing a smile on innocent faces. Ritika said while celebrating festivals, we must remember the poor and needy and share joy with them.

"While we celebrate Diwali with much fanfare, we must also remember those living in orphanages and old-age homes who are unable to celebrate the festival for lack of resources, if we are able to bring a smile on their face, then I think our celebrations are doubled", she said.

Ritika asked concerned departments to ensure the inmates of Bal Niketan were provided adequate facilities.

"Everyone can share some joy during the festive season. It also gives the under-privileged some hope and respite from their monotonous lives, said Ritika. "I am extremely happy to celebrate my Diwali with these children," added Ritika.

JKEEGA Guidance Council resents vindictive action on President

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The JKEEGA Guidance Council, comprised of senior engineers from Junior Engineers to Chief Engineers, convened on Saturday in Jammu to address a matter of great concern regarding the repeated transfer orders affecting the elected president of JKEEGA. They told Principal Secretary PDD that the elected president in accordance with the bye laws of the constitution of JKEEGA, has been subjected to three transfer orders within a span of four months.

These transfers have taken him through various districts, namely Vijaypur, Kathua, and now Rajouri. The members of the Guidance Council were dismayed by this frequent upheaval, particularly considering the democratic process through which the president was elected. The presidential elections were held on July 16, 2022, as per the Election notification no JKEEGA/Elections/2022-24/01 Dated July 23, 2022.

Since assuming office, the president has dutifully adhered to each transfer order; promptly joining his new postings in Sub Division Ramgarh-District Samba ED -Vijaypur and TLMD-II SD-III Kathua, as per the respective orders, they said. The latest transfer order, vide Govt. order no-139-JK (PDD) OF 2023 Dated 08/11/2023, has directed him to ED Rajouri- SD Nowshera JPDCL. The members said that these repeated transfers are adversely impacting the morale of the fraternity and seem to be an attempt to impede the democratic rights of the elected representative of the JKEEGA.

"The transfer policy of the Government and refer to Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs OM no-OM No-23/3/69-Estt(B) Dated - 08/04/1969, wherein it is explicitly stated that "President/General Secretary of the elected employee organization may be brought on transfer to the Headquarters or any other office under his control at the Headquarters of the head of the administration as far as possible."

Considering the aforementioned guidelines, we, the JKEEGA Guidance Council, earnestly appealed to Principal Secretary PDD to reconsider the transfer order of the elected president.

They requested that he be allowed to work at Headquarters in Jammu, enabling him to serve the department and the fraternity more effectively.
