STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Air Force School (AFS) Jammu celebrated its Annual Day "Sankalan" 2023 at General Zorawar Singh Auditorium, University of Jammu, here.

The central motive for the annual day function was "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam," emphasizing the global unity of humanity.

Senior officers of Air Force Station Jammu were present at the function in addition to Subedar Major Swarnan Bal (Retd) and Praveen Kumari, the parents of Late Flight Lieutenant Aditya Bal for bestowing the prestigious and most coveted Flight Lieutenant Aditya Bal Rolling Trophy to the student of the year.

Dignitaries at lamp lighting ceremony at AFS Jammu.

The function began with the traditional lamp lighting followed by a tribute to Lord Ganesha. The Annual Report was given by Shuchi Gupta, Principal, Air Force School Jammu in which the achievements in scholastic and co-scholastic activities were highlighted. This was followed by a colorful cultural program by the students.

The myriad dances presenting culture of J&K and Ladakh region included Gojri dance, Ladakhi dance and Kashmiri dance holding the audience captivated.

The audience was mesmerized by the vibrant Kalbelia dance, scintillating Dandiya and Maharashtra Koli dance performances by the enthusiastic performers.

The highlight of the evening was the grand fusion of classical dance forms that seamlessly blended the grace of Bharatnatyam, the storytelling artistry of Kathak, and the elegance of the Fan Dance followed by the grand finale.

After cultural performances, the meritorious students were awarded with medals and prizes for their academic and extra-curricular achievements.

Tanushka Rakwal of batch 2022-23 became the initiatory winner of Flt Lt Aditya Bal Rolling Trophy. The trophy along with a cash prize of Rs 5000 was handed over by the parents of Flt Lt Aditya Bal.

The vote of thanks was presented by Meenakshi Raina, followed by the soulful rendition of Air Force School Song. Overall it was a fulfilling.

200 students from Tribal Hostels, EMRSs engage in cultural exchange programme

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: As part of the vibrant and culturally rich Janjatiya Gaurav Saptah, a significant cultural exchange program was organized on Sunday for 200 enthusiastic students drawn from different tribal hostels and Eklavya Model Residential Schools (EMRSs) of J&K by Tribal Research Institute, Tribal Affairs Department.

This initiative is a testament to the commitment of the Government to foster understanding and appreciation of diverse tribal cultures.

It reflects the vision of Shri Manoj Sinha, Lieutenant Governor of Jammu and Dy Director TAD, Dr Abdul Khabir posing with students and other officials.

Kashmir, who has been a guiding force in various tribal welfare initiatives.

The program was arranged under the direction of Dr. Shahid Iqbal Choudhary, Secretary of the Tribal Affairs Department.

This day-long event, supported by the Ministry of Tribal Affairs, included a series of enriching activities designed to provide students with a platform for cultural interaction and learning.

The students had the opportunity to visit various significant places, engage in entertaining activities, and participate in interactive sessions that celebrated their unique cultural heritages.

Dr Abdul Khabir, Deputy Director Tribal Affairs Department said that the cultural exchange program not only served as a conduit for cultural learning but also as a platform for building friendships and understanding among the youth from different tribal backgrounds.

It is a step forward in our ongoing efforts to celebrate tribal culture and ensure their integral place in nation building.
