Congress-NC back traitors not nationalists: Vibodh

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SAMBA: Slamming Congress, NC and PDP for jeopardising peace in Jammu and Kashmir for over 7 decades, BJP J&K General Secretary and former MLC Advocate Vibodh Gupta said that Maharaja Hari Singh integrated J&K with India and instead of honouring him by declaring his birthday as holiday, Congress and NC started observing Martyr's day which was the day of rebellion against the glorious and welfare rule of Maharaja Hari Singh. Addressing a gathering at Ghagwal in Panchayat Harsath, District Samba today, Advocate Vibodh Gupta lashed out at Congress and NC and termed these parties as conspirators who intentionally tarnished the image of Maharaja Hari Singh only because Maharaja integrated J&K to India and for his patriotism. "Congress, NC backed rebels and forgot the real Hero Maharaja Hari Singh", he said adding that now the Modi government has corrected their blunders and exposed conspiracies against the great Maharaja, cancelled the rebel day holiday and declared holiday on the birthday of Maharaja Hari Singhji. Vibodh Gupta further added that today Accession Day is also celebrated with full zeal and enthusiasm. The grand celebrations during Accession Day is a big victory for the people of Jammu and Kashmir against those parties who always disrespected the revered Maharaja Hari Singhji and discriminated against Dogras. He lauded the role of Jammu youth, BJP activists and leaders for making the day possible and also credited Prime Minister Narendra Modi government for these remarkable changes. Thanking Prime Minister, District Prabhari of BJP Samba Narayana Singh said that the whole J&K is on the path of development and the Union Territory is becoming a fast developing area. He said that AIIMS has been established in Samba district which is a welcome step.
