Sakeena, Javed Dar condole demise of former VC KU, CUK

STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: Minister for Education, Social Welfare, Health & Medical Education, Sakeena Masood has condole the sad demise of former Vice Chancellor of Kashmir University (KU) and Central University of Kashmir (CUK), Prof. Abdul Wahid Qureshi, who passed away on Sunday morning at Sher-e-Kashmir Institute of Medical Sciences (SKIMS), Soura here.

In her condolence message, Sakeena Masood described the late Prof. Qureshi as distinguished academic leader and visionary, who dedicated his life to advancing education and fostering excellence. She added that during his tenure as Vice Chancellor of Kashmir University, he played a pivotal role in the transformation and growth of University, bringing significant improvements in curriculum, infrastructure and faculty development. The Minister also remembered the role of Prof. Qureshi in hand holding the students of far-off areas and downtrodden communities and nurturing them to excel in education besides establishing Central University of Kashmir.

Minister of Agriculture Production, Rural Development Department and Panchayati Raj, Javed Ahmad Dar, on Sunday expressed profound grief and sorrow over the demise of Professor Abdul Wahid Qureshi. The Minister described late Wahid Qureshi as a visionary academic leader who not only excelled in his field but also motivated others to strive for excellence. Paying glowing tributes, the Minister said that Professor Wahid Qureshi was a person of par excellence, who dedicated his life towards taking education to new heights. He said that the deceased played a pivotal role in establishing both University of Kashmir and CUK as great campuses for learning and academic leadership. Sakeena Masood and Javed Dar extended sympathies to the bereaved family and prayed for eternal peace to the departed soul.

Anti-beggary & Child Labour Rescue Drive held in Srinagar

STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: The Department of Social Welfare, Child help line, Srinagar in collaboration with Labour Department conducted three days anti-beggary and child labour drive in the Srinagar.

The drive that commenced from 14th and culminated on 16th of November was a joint initiative taken on the directions of Commissioner Secretary to Government, Social Welfare Department J&K, Sheetal Nanda and under the guidance of District Child Protection Officer Srinagar in order to rehabilitate the children involved in labour and beggary. During the drive, a total of 13 children, 6 boys and 7 girls were rescued from situations of child labour and begging. The drive targeted various hotspot areas of Lal Chowk, Polo View, Karan Nagar, Chanapora, Hyderpora, Sanatnagar, and Baghat Chowk. The children were found in activities like, street-based labour such as selling socks, gloves, artificial jewellery, working at tea stall, paid weighing scale and begging in busy market areas, highlighting their exposure to exploitation and unsafe conditions. The rescued children were promptly presented before the Child Welfare Committee, Srinagar, for legal procedures. Following the hearings, the children underwent a medical screening to ensure their health and well-being. They were subsequently placed at the Open Shelter Home for Boys in Nowgam, where they will receive care, education, and support.

Army holds mini marathon to strengthen civil-military relation

STATE TIMES NEWS
MENDHAR/JAMMU: Hundreds of people on Sunday took part in a mini marathon organised by Army's Bhimber Gali brigade in Mendhar sector, an official said.

The first ever mini-marathon in the border subdivision ahead of the mega Mendhar sports festival was undertaken under operation 'Sadbhavana' (goodwill) to foster unity and social cohesion besides strengthening civil-military relation, he said.

The army official said the event witnessed an overwhelming participation of local populace and drew 400 participants from school and colleges of the Mendhar region, demonstrating their zeal and enthusiasm.

He said the Marathon featured two competitive age categories - 15 to 30 years and 31 to 45 years. All the participants showcased tremendous spirit, resilience and indomitable will to compete throughout the event. The event was also aimed at promoting culture, encouraging community engagement and generating a sense of healthy competition among the locals, motivating them to pick-up new skills and nurture them towards their brighter future, he said.

Operation Sadbhavana is an initiative of the Army, which addressed the socio-economic and physiological needs of people. These initiatives focus on education, healthcare, infrastructure, empowerment and provide multiple opportunities to the young talents of the Mendar enabling them to grow in various walks of their life.

The mini marathon marked a significant milestone in empowering the youth to adopt a competitive mindset and healthy lifestyle, thereby promoting the operation sadbhavana's objective of peace, stability and development, the official said. He said the grand finale of the mega event is scheduled on November 25, where the cultural events, dog show, ex-servicemen meet and felicitation ceremony will be organised. Special stalls will be placed to encourage, inform and empower the local populace, especially youth, towards growth, synergy and development in order to enable them contribute towards nation building, the official said.

Kanhaiya, Yawer's masterclass knocks put J&K back on track; match hangs in balance skipper with magnificent 51 and 49 runs respectively. Arnav hit 7 fours and 2 sixes in his 79-ball knock, while Kawal Preet took 81 balls and struck 4 fours and 2 sixes in his knock. Archit Mahajan (20) also contributed to the team's cause.

For Gujarat, Jay Malusare and Kushan Shan Patel took 3 wickets each, while Shen Patel claimed 2 wickets.

Earlier, on day-1 put into bat, J&K bundled out for paltry 136 runs. Kanhaiya (46) and Qamran Iqbal and Arehit Mahajan 20 each were the main contributors.

Jai Malusare was the wrecker-in-chief for Gujarat, who captured 5 wickets while Bhavya Chauhan and Shen Patel claimed 3 and 2 wickets respectively.

Gujarat in reply, had scored 270 runs to gain a lead of 133 runs.

Opener Rishi Patel scored magnificent 140 runs off 216 balls studded with 10 fours and 4 sixes, while Krish Amit Gupta contributed 39 runs to the total.

For J&K, Mujtaba Yousuf and Archit Mahajan captured 4 wickets each, while Janib Javaid picked 2 wickets.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Solidity, sublimity, elegance and serenity was on display as skipper Kanhaiya Wadhawan and promising middle-order batter Yawer Hassan scored masterclass half-centuries, coupled with equally valuable contribution with the willow by Arnav Gupta and Kawal Preet Singh, put Jammu and Kashmir back on track after conceding a sizeable first innings lead to formidable Gujarat in the ongoing U-23 Men's Col CK Nayudu Trophy at University of Jammu ground here.

Jammu and Kashmir were 365/9 at stumps on day-3 today, gaining a lead of 231 runs with one wicket in hand, thus the match hangs in balance and the team that would hold its nerves better in the crunch situation on the final day tomorrow, would be the winner.

Resuming from an overnight score of 93/4, J&K rode on an exceptional batting show by Kanhaiya and Yawer to take the score 233 runs, making a fifth wicket partnership off-sets superb bowling display by the trio of Mujtaba Yousuf, Archit Mahajan and Janib Java 156 runs, before Yawer was dismissed on his individual score of 69 runs off 224 balls, studded with 12 boundaries.

Kanhaiya was the next man to be dismissed at his individual score of masterclass 94 runs including 9 fours.
