

KC Gurukul Public School girls shine at national level competition

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: KC Gurukul Public School announced the outstanding achievements of two of its students, Sanjana Tickoo and Saanvi Sunil, who have brought laurels to the school and the region through their exceptional performances at the national level.

Saanvi Sunil Sanjana Tickoo

Sanjana Tickoo, a star athlete, clinched the gold medal in National Pencak Silat Championship held recently in Srinagar. Her unparalleled skills, focused, and determination led her to dominate the competition and emerge as the national champion. Saanvi's remarkable achievement has not only made the school proud but also earned her the honour of representing India at the international championship in the UAE. This milestone reflects her dedication to her sports and her unwavering commitment to excellence. In another remarkable accomplishment, Saanvi Sunil has been selected for the prestigious under-15 cricket team of Jammu and Kashmir. This significant achievement highlights Saanvi's talent, hard work and passion for cricket. She will now compete on the national stage, representing the region and the school with pride. The school acknowledges and celebrates the dedication and resilience of these young achievers, who have set an inspiring example for their peers. KC Gurukul Public School wished Sanjana and Saanvi continued success in their respective journeys and pledged its unwavering support for their future endeavours.

Guest lecture, symposium organized in NSS camp

Krishnarvind from ISKCON addressing students during NSS camp.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The ongoing seven-day NSS camp organized by K.C. College of Education at Govt School Pounichak entered its third day with a symposium on "The Role of Youth in Maintaining National Integration" and a guest lecture by Krishnarvind from the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON). The symposium witnessed vibrant discussions among participants, highlighting the significance of youth engagement in promoting national integration. Students presented insightful papers on various aspects, including Cultural diversity and unity; Social cohesion and inclusivity; Education's role in national integration; and Youth-led initiatives for communal harmony. Krishnarvind emphasized the importance of spiritual values in achieving national integration. He stressed on the need for selfless service and compassion, understanding and respecting diverse traditions, cultivating empathy and tolerance, and youth's potential to drive positive change. Dr. Sanjay Tickoo, Principal of the College, appreciated the students for their enthusiastic participation. NSS Program Officer, Priya Gupta expressed gratitude to Krishnarvind and praised the participants' enthusiasm. "This symposium and lecture have enriched our understanding of national integration. We're committed to empowering youth to become agents of change," said Priya Gupta. The camp will continue with workshops, discussions, and community service activities, fostering a sense of unity and social responsibility among participants.
