STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: CMH College of Legal Studies, Jammu, celebrated Constitution Day on Wednesday to mark the 75th anniversary of the adoption of the Indian Constitution in the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949. The event, observed as Samvidhan Divas, was marked by a series of insightful lectures and discussions on the significance of the Constitution in shaping modern India. The inaugural lecture was delivered by Dr. Kartika Bakshi, Guest Faculty from the Department of Law, University of Jammu. She highlighted the evolving importance of the Constitution in today's dynamic world and traced its journey from its inception to its relevance in the modern era.

Justice Subash Gupta, Retd. District and Session Judge and former Member of JKPCS, was the Guest of Honour. He elaborated on the basic concepts of the Constitution and discussed various provisions, citing landmark Supreme Court judgments. He also explained how Constitutional Amendments have played a crucial role in adapting the law to the changing times. Advocate Mamta Chib, Panel Lawyer for the District Legal Service Authority (DLSA), Jammu, focused on the justice delivery system. She emphasized the role of DLSA and advocates in providing legal aid to underserved communities. Siya Mahajan, a first-semester BALLB student, delivered a lecture on the importance of the Constitution, reiterating its vital role in ensuring justice and equality for all. The program was presided over by Chowdhary Zulfiqar Ali, Chairman of CMH College, who spoke on the basic structure of the Constitution as defined in the Keshavananda Bharti case. He urged students to pledge to uphold the Constitution's supremacy and emphasized the values of Justice, Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity. The ceremony concluded with a pledge reading the Preamble of the Constitution by Pratibha Sharma, a first-semester BALLB student. The vote of thanks was delivered by Anman Shafiqat Mir, Faculty of Law.
