The event began with a sacred Yajna ceremony, performed by Chain Lal Shastri and Ritu Shastri, with Chaman Lal Gupta acting as the main Yajman. This auspicious ritual set the tone for the gathering, followed by a flag-hoisting ceremony led by former MLC Naresh Gupta. The ceremony symbolized a renewed commitment to the spiritual and cultural rejuvenation of the community. The atmosphere was further enriched by soulful bhajans rendered by artists Patimat Shetu Shah, Asha Arth, Rakesh Arya, and others, filling the space with devotion and unity.

Key figures in attendance included Shri Chain Lal Shastri and his wife from Tinde Kalan, President Hans Raj and his wife, Arun Arya ji, Ashok Khanna, Pawan Raina (Patoli), Sumit Gupta, Rajendra Gupta, Rakesh

Arya and Mahatma Chuni Lal Arya from Lamberi. Lecturer Harminder ji, along with many dedicated individuals from Bhallessa contributed significantly to the event. The presence of Purohit Kailash Arya, Bharat Bhushan Arya, and Krishna Lal Arya from Arya Samaj Chinta further lent spiritual guidance to the proceedings. The event was marked by inspiring speeches. Naresh

Gupta called for collective efforts to revive Bhaderwah's intellectual and spiritual heritage, urging the community to remain steadfast in their faith. Chaman Lal Gupta highlighted the importance of expanding Arya Samaj activities to inspire future generations and ensure the continuity of spiritual practices. The event culminated in the election of new office-bearers. Under the chairmanship of Chuni Lal Arya, Chaman Lal Gupta (Retd. ZEO) was unanimously elected as President. Other office-bearers include Vice President Puneet Mehta, Advocate Manish Dutt, Patron Naresh Gupta, Former President Jaswant Singh Chadak, and Ved Prakash Kotwal. Shri Sant Ram Shan was elected as Secretary, with Shri Hans Raj as Treasurer. Core committee members include Ajit Singh Wazir, Mastnath Yogi, Shankar Singh, Smt. Kamlesh Gupta, Anil Gupta, Richa Gupta, and Ashu Mehta.

The event concluded with heartfelt acknowledgments to contributors such as Chuni Lal and other dedicated individuals whose efforts ensured the success of the gathering. It was unanimously decided to continue holding monthly Havans until a permanent priest is appointed, ensuring the continuity of spiritual practices within the community.

STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: In a significant achievement, the district administration Doda, under the leadership of Deputy Commissioner Harvinder Singh, successfully removed a 40-year-old encroachment on the land belonging to the District Information Centre (DIC). The step was taken following intensive efforts by the administration to reclaim the public property and ensure its rightful use.

The issue came to light when the newly appointed District Information Officer (DIO), Nasir Ahmed Khan, took the initiative to address the longstanding encroachment.

Upon learning about the matter, he promptly approached the Deputy Commissioner, highlighting the urgency of the situation.

Acknowledging the importance of the issue, the DC directed the Revenue Department, through Tehsildar Doda, to investigate and take immediate action to restore the encroached land. Land encroachment was retrieved by the District Information Centre, Revenue Department, and Municipal Council through their collective efforts.

Following the directives, the Revenue Department, in coordination with the concerned officials, undertook swift measures to reclaim the land. This decisive action marks a milestone in upholding transparency and accountability in governance, ensuring that public assets are safeguarded for their intended purposes. The removal of encroachment paves the way for the optimal utilization of the District Information Centre land, which can now be used to enhance communication and outreach activities. The district administration has reiterated its commitment to addressing similar issues and ensuring the proper management of public properties in the future.
