FICCI FLO strengthens India-Bhutan ties through women-led sustainability initiatives

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Under the leadership of Poonam Sharma, 42nd National President of FICCI FLO-the women's wing of the Fbderation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry-a Sustainable Study Delegation visited Bhutan to reinforce collaboration in sustainability, women's entrepreneurship, and regional growth.

The 34-member delegation, led by Puja Garg, National Senior Vice President, and curated by Smriti Puri, National Treasurer, engaged with Bhutanese leaders, institutions, and entrepreneurs to learn from the country's renowned model of Sustainable Development, Controlled Tourism, and Gross National Happiness (GNH). Prominent members included Past Presidents Dr. Harjinder Kaur Talwar and Ujjwala Singhania, National Joint Treasurer Suguna Ravichandran, and FICCI FLO J&K members with others at programme.

Chapter Chairs Mona Singh and Pratibha Kunda. Governing Body Members Kuwarani Ritu Singh, Ambar Paridhi Sahai, Minal Jain, Namrata Mishra, Rinita Sarna, Ruby Garg, and Sunita Kanoria also participated, representing FLO's diverse leadership and shared commitment to sustainable progress.

A key highlight was a special audience with His Majesty The Druk Gyalpo, Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck, King of Bhutan, who shared his vision for the Gelephu Mindfulness City, integrating mindfulness, innovation, and sustainability. "His Majesty's vision for mindful living and sustainable progress truly inspired us. It aligns beautifully with FLO's belief that women are the architects of a sustainable and equitable future," said Poonam Sharma. The delegation met with business leaders and policy experts to explore collaborations in green innovation, entrepreneurship, and capacity building. FLO also felicitated Tandy Wangchuk, President of the Bhutan Chamber of Commerce & Industry (BCCI), for his leadership in sustainable business practices, and Damchae Dem, Founder & CEO of the Bhutan Association of Women Entrepreneurs (BAOWE), for empowering women and fostering inclusive economic growth.

"This initiative demonstrates the power of women-led collaboration in shaping a conscious and connected region," said Puja Garg, while Smriti Puri highlighted that the visit focused on "action and alliance" to promote sustainability through partnerships. Ritu Singh emphasized that "education and well-being are key to building bridges of growth between our nations."

Founded in 1983, FICCI FLO-India's premier platform for women's economic empowerment with over 14,000 members across 21 chapters-continues to drive initiatives in entrepreneurship, skill development, and leadership.

Going forward, FLO aims to work with BCCI to co-create programs promoting women-led entrepreneurship, green innovation, skill development, and leadership exchange between India and Bhutan.
