New Labour Codes usher in golden era for workers, industry: Rohiin Chandan

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: In a strong endorsement of PM Narendra Modi's vision for a self-reliant and future-ready India, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leader Rohiin Chandan today hailed the four new labor codes as a historic reform that places the dignity of labor at the very center of the nation's economic transformation.
Chandan said, "Under the vibrant and decisive leadership of PM Modi, the new labor codes have created a modern, progressive, and balanced framework that clearly demonstrates India's readiness to meet the demands of a dynamic and rapidly evolving global economy."
For decades, he pointed out, India grappled with sluggish economic growth, deep-rooted corruption, and a glaring lack of political will to prioritize job creation and genuine workers' welfare. Successive governments allowed politically motivated ghereaos, bandhs, and strikes to paralyze industrial activity, driving away investors and shattering confidence in the system.
"It is indeed a matter of national shame," Chandan remarked, "that previous regimes reduced labor welfare to mere electoral slogans while turning a blind eye to the real hardships faced by millions of workers."

Rohiin underlined that it required a fundamental shift in national leadership to break this decades-long inertia. From the ramparts of the Red Fort, PM Modi gave the nation the powerful mantra of "Shramev Jayate"-Labor Alone Triumphs. "This was not just another slogan," Chandan emphasized. "It signalled the birth of a new national consciousness that places the worker-the shramik-at the very heart of India's development journey."
The four Labour Codes-the Code on Wages, the Industrial Relations Code, the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, and the Code on Social Security-have consolidated 29 outdated and overlapping labor laws into a simplified, transparent, and future-oriented architecture. He said that these reforms guarantee minimum wages for all workers, extend social security to gig and platform workers, ensure safer workplaces, provide for faster dispute resolution, and introduce greater ease of doing business without compromising workers' rights.

He highlighted that the codes empower women by permitting them to work in all sectors with adequate safety provisions, introduce universal minimum wages, and mandate annual health check-ups for workers. At the same time, they replace the old "Inspector Raj" with technology-driven transparency and reduce the compliance burden for employers, paving the way for large-scale job creation.

PM Modi has shifted labor reforms from a secondary issue to a national mission, leading to increased job formalization, higher female workforce participation, and enhanced investor confidence. The BJP-led government aims for Viksit Bharat, urging workers and unions to adopt these reforms. Chandan emphasized that the era of slogans has ended, marking a new phase with Shramev Jayate under Modi's leadership.

NSF slams US military beard ban, calls its direct attack on Sikh identity

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: National Sikh Front (NSF) Chairman S. Varinderjeet Singh strongly condemned the recent order of the United States Department of Defence banning beards and long hair for its uniformed personnel, terming it a "direct assault on the religious identity of Sikhs" and "gross violation of fundamental rights".
In a hard-hitting statement issued here, S. Varinderjeet Singh said the directive issued by US Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth revoking religious accommodation for Sikh was nothing short of religious persecution."

The Sikh articles of faith, including unshorn hair and beard, are not optional. They are mandatory and non-negotiable. This order insults the sacrifices of countless Sikh soldiers who have served the US forces with full religious symbols since World War I," the NSF Chairman said.
He warned that the decision would not only affect serving Sikh personnel but also discourage future generations from joining the armed forces.
S. Varinderjeet Singh urged the Government of India to take up the matter strongly with the US administration at the highest diplomatic level and ensure immediate rollback of the "anti-Sikh" directive.

He also appealed to all Sikh organisations worldwide to unite and launch a coordinated campaign against the "regressive and prejudiced" policy.
The National Sikh Front announced that it would soon approach the Ministry of External Affairs and submit a formal representation seeking New Delhi's intervention in protecting the religious rights of Sikh soldiers in the US military.
