a new dawn of progress under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. He said that the BJP has opened the floodgates of development in Jammu and Kashmir. From infrastructure growth to welfare schemes, from youth empowerment to women-centric initiatives, every policy is aimed at ensuring inclusive progress. Budgam, like the rest of India, stands to gain immensely if it embraces the BJP's vision of peace, prosperity, and stability, Koul stat-

Cyber awareness programme organized

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
KISHTWAR: Under the directions of SSP Kishtwar, Sh. Naresh Singh-JKPS, Kishtwar Police organized a Cyber Awareness Programme at Baba Ghulam Shah Nursing College, Kishtwar, to educate students about cyber safety and responsible online behavior. IC Cyber Police Station Kishtwar, Insp. Intiyaz Ahmed, along with expert PSI Moin Khan, delivered an informative presentation highlighting cyber-crime cases successfully resolved by the police and briefed participants on various types of cyber threats. They emphasized safe online practices, urging students to be cautious while using social media, conducting online transactions, and browsing the internet.

Participants were also informed about government initiatives such as the 1930 Cyber Helpline, Cybercrime.gov.in for complaint registration, Sanchar Saathi for reporting fraud calls, and the CEIR Portal for recovering lost mobile phones.
The Principal, faculty, and students expressed their gratitude to Kishtwar Police for organizing the event, which enhanced awareness about cyber hygiene and digital security. The programme was attended by PSI Bhupinder Singh, PSI Preeti Sani, and other staff members of the college.

Vote to NC to pursue path of inclusive development, sustainable peace: Sadhotra

District President, and Block Presidents Balwant Singh and Devender Singh. He said the Omar Abdullah-led government has been working tirelessly toward infrastructure development and people-centric governance despite challenges of dual administration. Referring to the restoration of the Darbar Move, Sadhotra described it as a historic decision demonstrating that with people's support, every goal is achievable.

He emphasized that the government has been striving to address the aspirations of the people, showing resilience amid political challenges and malicious propaganda from opponents. Sadhotra said the National Conference, with its rich legacy of public service, has always upheld the dignity and democratic rights of the people. He asserted that the party remains committed to promoting the welfare of youth, women, farmers, and senior citizens, ensuring inclusive growth and social justice.

Former Minister Babu Ram Pal, Zone President, appealed to the people to support Begum Shamim, describing a vote for the NC as a vote for the people-friendly policies of the Omar Abdullah government.
Addressing the gathering, Ch. Khurshed Ahmed (MLA Mahore-Gulabgarh) and Arjun Singh Raju (MLA Ramban) highlighted that the National Conference, deeply rooted in the ethos of Jammu and Kashmir, represents the aspirations of every section of society. They said that NC, being the party of the poor, peasants, and marginalized, has steered J&K toward peace, progress, and prosperity over the decades.

Sadhotra concluded by appealing to the people to cast their vote for Begum Shamim on November 11 by pressing Button No. 3 (Plough Symbol) to ensure victory for the National Conference and strengthen its mission of unity, progress, and people's welfare.
Among those present were Mohd Ayoub Malik, Satwant Dogra, Rajni Bala, Randhir Singh Chib, Tilak Raj Bhagat, Subash Choudhary, Mannohan, Sukhjeet Singh, Ch. Razak, Ch. Rizvi (Advocate), Master Mushtaq, Master Gulzar, and Ch. Razak Ahmed.

Sat chairs meeting to review progress under Atma Nirbhar Bharat campaign of the programmes conducted so far, including the number of Sammelans organized, Sankalp Patra filled, and other public outreach activities being carried out at the district and booth levels. He appreciated the efforts of the teams working on the ground and emphasized that the campaign is not merely an event but a movement towards building a self-reliant India, envisioned by Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Sat Sharma said that the concept of Atma Nirbhar Bharat is the foundation of a stronger, progressive, and economically independent nation. Every activist must take it as a mission to reach every household and inspire people to contribute towards this vision. He said that the success of the campaign depends on our ability to connect with people, promote local entrepreneurship, and strengthen grassroots participation.

Sanjita Dogra briefed the meeting about the progress achieved so far. She said that the campaign has received an encouraging response from all organizational districts and that the enthusiasm among women cadre has given the initiative an added strength. She added that the BJP is committed to implementing Prime Minister Modi's vision of Vocal for Local and Self-Reliant India in Jammu & Kashmir. Through our coordinated efforts, we aim to empower individuals and communities to become partners in the nation's development journey, she said.

Mahant Rohit Shastri meets MLA Shagun Parihar to promote Sanskrit

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Mahant Rohit Shastri, State Awardee and President of Shri Kailakh Jyotish Avim Vedic Sansthan Trust, Raipur Thathar paid a courtesy visit to Shagun Parihar, MLA from Kishtwar, to discuss initiatives for the promotion of Sanskrit and Indian culture.
On the occasion, Mahant Shastri presented Parihar with a felicitation volume dedicated to Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha, along with a set of Vedic, Jyotish, and Sanskrit publications published by the Trust.
Congratulating Parihar for taking her oath in Devvani Sanskrit, Mahant Shastri praised her historic step, calling it a proud moment for the Union Territory and the nation. He said that taking the oath in Sanskrit reflects deep respect for India's cultural heritage and will inspire future generations to embrace the ancient language, which he described as "the soul of India."
MLA Shagun Parihar appreciated the Trust's continuous efforts to promote Sanskrit and Vedic studies, stating that Sanskrit is not just a language but the essence of Indian civilization.

Mahant Shastri reaffirmed the Trust's commitment to expanding welfare schemes aimed at spreading Sanskrit, Jyotish, and Vedic knowledge among the youth to strengthen their connection with India's cultural roots.

ASP Poonch urges youth to stay away from drugs, use social media responsibly

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
POONCH: Continuing its outreach and awareness efforts among the youth, Additional Superintendent of Police Poonch, Sh. Mohan Lal Sharma, JKPS, today visited Boys Higher Secondary School, Poonch, where he interacted with students and faculty members on issues related to drug abuse prevention, responsible social media usage, and discipline among the youth.

He was accompanied by DySP Headquarters Poonch, Neeraj Sharma, and SHO Police Station Poonch, Insp. Sachinder Pal Singh.
During the interaction, ASP Poonch highlighted the alarming rise in drug abuse among young people and emphasized the vital role students can play in eradicating this menace from society. He appealed to the students to remain vigilant, stay away from drugs, and report any suspicious activity related to narcotics to the police.

He also sensitized the students about the responsible use of social media platforms, advising them to avoid sharing misleading or provocative content and to use digital media constructively for learning and awareness.
On the occasion, certificates were distributed to NCC cadets of the institution for their exemplary participation in various community service and awareness programmes.
The school administration expressed gratitude to District Police Poonch for organizing such meaningful interactions aimed at guiding and motivating the youth towards a positive and disciplined lifestyle.

District Police Poonch continues its commitment to strengthen police-public relations and to promote awareness among the younger generation against social evils and cyber misuse.
