India transitioning to fuel-exporting nation: Gadkari

STATE TIMES NEWS

BHUBANESWAR: Union minister Nitin Gadkari on Friday said India is transitioning from a fuel-importing to a fuel-exporting nation, driven by the growing production and use of ethanol, methanol and green hydrogen, he said.

"India is the fastest-growing economy in the world. The dream of our Prime Minister is to make India the third-largest economy. Our mission is to make the country a 'Vishwaguru'. For that, we need world-class infrastructure in the water, power, transport, and communication segments," the Union Road Transport and Highways Minister said. Gadkari said the government's aim is to build a modern infrastructure rooted in innovation and sustainable mobility solutions. "This transformative approach will generate extensive employment opportunities, strengthen the infra-skill ecosystem, and steer India towards a self-reliant and resilient future," he said. Underscoring the crucial role of road engineers, the Union minister said their precision and innovation are key to preparing accurate detailed project reports (DPRs) and developing safe highways. He also noted that the use of bio-bitumen and recycled plastic waste in highway construction is enhancing durability, sustainability, and cost efficiency, while supporting the nation's eco-friendly infrastructure goals.

At the event, Gadkari also announced Rs 1,000 crore for Odisha under the Central Road Fund (CRF).

The order was issued by Poonch District Magistrate Ashok Kumar Sharma on Thursday following a report by the police, warning that bursting firecrackers during weddings, especially at night, could cause confusion among security forces and hinder their response to any potential terror-related incident. Acting on the recommendation by the senior superintendent of police, Poonch, the district magistrate invoked Section 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) to enforce the ban with immediate effect till further orders. The administration has cautioned that any violation of the directive will invite action under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita.
