Army rescues ailing woman stuck in snowbound Chilli-Pingal area

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
BHADARWAH: Jawans of the Rashtriya Rifles based at Gandoh rescued an ailing woman stuck in snowbound Chilli-Pingal tehsil of Gandoh sub division in Doda district and safely took her for about two kilometres in knee-deep snow and then transported her to the hospital, the Indian Army said on Monday.

On Monday afternoon, the Company of 4RR Operating Base at Gandoh in Doda district received a distress call from Chander Prakash Sharma of Chilli Bala saying that his daughter Manju Devi (25) fell unconscious and is in serious condition due to severe cold and needs to be evacuated to the hospital immediately.

Due to heavy snowfall and inclement weather, neither community health service vehicle nor civil transport was available and the same was possible only after snow was cleared from the road.

Understanding the gravity of the situation and the plight of the family, the army troops at Gandoh along with battlefield nursing assistant and medical comforts, reached the spot on time.

The Jawans escorted the woman Manju Devi (25), who was neither eating nor talking and the family for about 2 km in knee deep snow till the road head, from where she was taken to Malik Pura and after further shifted to GMC Doda .

On reaching the hospital the woman
