JAMMU: The Dogra Sadar Sabha (DSS) celebrated Lohri at the DSS Bhawan, Dogra Hall with full gaiety and spirit of traditional inter-communal brotherhood for which the Dogras and their Dogriyat is known. Speaking on the occasion the President DSS and former minister Th. Gulchain Singh Charak narrated the story of the famous folk lore of "Dulla Bhatti" as to how this brave man from Muslim community saved the honour of a Hindu girl and cared for her as his own daughter as a reminder to the young generations, in a climate where the nation is struggling with the menace of atrocities on women and even minor girls by anti-social criminals.

He said that it is the tradition of Dogra land that the people of all religions, castes and creed live together with trust, mutual respect and as guardian by Dogriyat.

He further said that all the festivals in our country of huge diversities are related to seasons and agriculture and are celebrated together jointly by all communities without distinction of class, creed or colour.

Sikhs, Muslims and Christian members also joined the celebration around the Bonfire and NSS volunteers Sartik,

Awareness lacking about Start-Ups outside Govt sector: Dr Jitendra

STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Union Minister, Dr Jitendra Singh on Thursday observed that awareness is lacking about new Start-Ups outside the government sector and called for creating mass awareness about emerging avenues of vocation and livelihood outside the government jobs.

He said, Sustainable Start-ups with livelihood linkages have revolutionary potential to change the face of New India.

Addressing the 1st Foundation Day of CSIR-NIScPR (National Institute of Science Communication and Policy Research), Dr Jitendra Singh quoted Prime Minister Narendra Modi as saying, "India is entering a golden age when it comes to start-ups and innovation". The Minister said that PM Modi is a great communicator of Science and has great scientific temper in promoting start-up culture in a new transformative India.

that soon India will be at the top slot, the way the innovation culture has caught the imagination of youth in the country. Any Start-up with a valuation of $1 billion or more is called a unicorn, he added.

Referring to Prime Minister's announcement of Digital Health Mission from the ramparts of Red Fort on 15th August, 2021, Dr Jitendra Singh said, focus is also on making our health ecosystem holistic and enabling it to bring our traditional knowledge as part of the health and wellness. He said, the new institute NIScPR is very important in the time of such a transformative change and the Vision and Mission of the institute will help in bridging the gap between science-technology-innovation, policy research and communication.

Dr Jitendra Singh happily noted that the rich legacy of the two institutes which together account for more than 100 years of existence, the new institute

NIScPR stands on solid foundations. This was visible in the successful conduct of the 6th India International Science Festival 2020 covering 41 events online during COVID times. This international festival was inaugurated by the Prime Minister of India and the Valedictory speech was given by the Vice President of India. It created 5 Guinness World Records, among them the largest attendance for a virtual science conference.

Dr Jitendra Singh launched the new website of CSIR-NIScPR, CSIR Compendium of Technologies 2021, Technology Readiness Level 6 Compendium and CSIR Technologies for Rural Livelihood Building Atmanirbarta on the occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, DG, CSIR, Dr Shekhar C Mande commended the stellar role played by NIScPR in dissemination of Science Communication. He said, the new entity is marching ahead pursuing its aims and objectives with enormous devotion.

Professor Ranjana Aggarwal, Director, CSIR-NIScPR gave a brief outline of activities of the institute in the last one year. She informed that the institute is developing programs through networking with different institutes in the country which are leading to activities such as joint projects, discussion papers etc. Creating Livelihood Opportunities in Rural Areas through CSIR Technologies is a Joint Venture between CSIR, Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (IIT Delhi) and VIBHA. CSIR-NIScPR is working as a Nodal Lab in this initiative.

The Science Reporter, Vigyan Pragati and Science Ki Duniya are 3 popular science magazines of NIScPR which have helped students, researchers, and general public to understand science in a simple way.

Tiny tots of Toddlers' World, a unit of JK Public School Kunjwani participating in Inter-School Poetry Recitation and Storytelling Competitions through online mode.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Toddlers' World, a unit of JK Public School (JKPS) Kunjwani, conducted Inter-School Poetry Recitation and Storytelling Competition in an online mode.

The competition was held in two slots. A total of 11 top noted CBSE schools participated in this competition.

The Chief Guest on the occasion was Shashi Chaudhary, Director JK

Public School Kunjwani. The Judges for the Poetry Recitation were Anuradha Dar, alumni of Modern Public School New Delhi and Gurmeet Kour whereas, the judges for Storytelling competition were Puneet Kour, Principal APS Jammu Cantt and Santosh Dogra.

The competition inspired the little buds; hence they came up with different poems on the "Nature" and recited them with great fondness and zeal for the nature.

They enjoyed the perfection of expression, thoughts, emotions, rhythm and music of words. All the students were dressed up as characters and presented their poems with facial expressions and voice modulation.

The little kids used props with different background scenes to captivate the audience attention. The rhythm and presentation skills of kids were outstanding.

The aim of this competition was to give students an opportunity to unleash their inner potential. It helped students to showcase their skills, enhance vocabulary, public speaking skills and confidence.

Shashi Chaudhary congratulated the participants and applauded the Wing Coordinator Shivangani Pandotra for organizing this great event.
