demanded that the Government should announce an ex-gratia of Rs 1 crore and a government job to the next kith and kin of those who lost their loved ones in dastardly attack and Rs 50 lakh to all injured persons.

In a function organized by SOS International to pay floral tributes to all martyrs who were martyred by Pakistan sponsored terrorists, the speakers strongly criticized the dubious role of Jammu Chamber of Commerce and Industry (JCCI) and questioned its silence over the killings of innocent Hindus in Dhangri.

Surjeet Singh Andotra, Secretary General, J&K High Court Bar

Association, Jammu, leaders of PoJK refugees and prominent personalities of Jammu attended the function and offered their tributes to the martyrs of Dhangri terror attack.

"We visited the families of martyrs in Dhangri where the people have lost their faith in political leadership. The people were in deep anguish over the role of JCCI and questioned its criminal silence over the massacre. It was a general perception among the people that the civil society of Jammu was toeing the government line," Chuni said.

He said it came to surface that it was targeted and selective killings of poor and innocent people who made both ends meet through daily earnings only.
