Congress opposes land order; seeks rational policy to protect small farmers, poor

JKPCC Chief Spokesperson Ravinder Sharma addressing a press conference.

Terming the recent decision of the Government to evict all occupants of Government land especially landless, petty, small and marginal farmers and other poor people from agricultural and other lands in their possession from decades as arbitrary, irrational and unjustified, Congress has criticized the same and demanded its immediate withdrawal till framing of a fair and rational policy. While addressing a press conference at PCC headquarters, JKPCC Chief Spokesperson Ravinder Sharma, along with other senior leaders demanded immediate withdrawal of order and framing of fair and a rational policy to save the small and marginal farmers and poor and landless people from the preview of this order, which will uproot thousands of poor people, while big sharks may find escape routes. Sharma said that thousands of landless, petty, small and marginal farmers, in cultivating possessions of different kinds of agricultural and residential lands appurtenant thereto, face forcible eviction by January 31 as per order, which is very serious. The people especially farmers are restless, since issuance of dictatorial order, a? their Girdawaris have been already erased unilaterally in recent years, without adhering to norms.

Flanked by several senior leaders including Shah Nawaz Choudhary- General Secretary PCC and Member DDC, Secretaries of the party high command especially Rahul Gandhi for high level review of the issue.

IGNOU signs MoU with Defence Forces to integrate knowledge in Bachelor Degree Programme for Agniveers

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) has signed a MoU with the defence forces to integrate knowledge with skills in the Bachelor Degree Programme designed for Agniveers in line with the recommendations of National Education Policy 2020.

To enhance the future career prospects of the recruits or 'Agniveers' under the 'Agnipath' scheme, the Ministry of Education had earlier announced the launch of a special three-year skill-based bachelor's degree that will recognize the skill training received by them during their tenure in the defense establishments.

Skill based Bachelor's Degree by IGNOU will provide Agniveers to do 50% the courses in general higher education and the balance credits through credit transfer of skill education provided by defence Institutes. Under this programme, 50% of the courses required for a graduate degree will come from the skill training (technical and non-technical) while a remaining will come from a variety of courses across subjects including Languages, Economics, History, Political Science, Sociology, Public Administration, Maths, Education, Commerce, Tourism, Vocational Studies, Agriculture and Jyotish, along with ability enhancement courses on Environmental Studies and Communication Skills in English. This programme is aligned with UGC norms and with the National Credit Framework / National Skill Qualification Framework (NSQF) as mandated under the National Education Policy 2020. It also has provision for multiple exit points - Undergraduate Certificate on successful completion of the first year courses, Undergraduate Diploma on successful completion of the first and second year courses, and Degree on completion of all the courses in a three year time frame.

The framework of the programme has been duly recognized by the concerned regulatory bodies like AICTE, NCVET and UGC and the Degree will be awarded by IGNOU as per UGC nomenclature and will be recognized both in India and abroad for employment and education', said Dr. Sandeep Gupta, Regional Director

In charge.
