He enjoined upon them to accelerate the pace of completion of targeted works. He impressed upon the Deputy

The Chief Secretary directed the DCs to take the process of plan formation in their hands well on time so that the necessary tendering of works is achieved before the onset of the month of May. He stated that the fund releases would normally be made in the first week of April itself for all Departments and Self Employment must be saturated in each Panchayat and town and designated Prabhat Officers shall be responsible for the same. He remarked that the administration is also working towards skilling of youth to help them in securing the jobs in private sector besides giving them opportunities to get government jobs on merit. Dr Mehta asked each of the Deputy Commissioners to create a District Employment Plan by consolidating all the available schemes rolled out by the Centre and UT. He advised them to work out in each department the schemes available for extending employment to youth.
